A RAISIN IN THE SUN – full text

To Mama:
in gratitude for the dream

What happens to a dream deferred?

Does it dry up
Like a raisin in the sun?

Or fester like a sore
And then run?

Does it stink like rotten meat?

Or crust and sugar over
Like a syrupy sweet?

Maybe it just sags
Like a heavy load.

Or does it explode?

Scene Three: Moving day, one week later.

Act III

An hour later.

ACT I

SCENE ONE

The YOUNGER living room would be a comfortable and well-ordered room if it were not for a number of indestructible contradictions to this state of being. Its furnishings are typical and undistinguished and their primary feature now is that they have clearly had to accommodate the living of too many people for too many years and they are tired. Still, we can see that at some time, a time probably no longer remembered by the family (except perhaps for MAMA), the furnishings of this room were actually selected with care and love and even hope and brought to this apartment and arranged with taste and pride.

That was a long time ago. Now the once loved pattern of the couch upholstery has to fight to show itself from under acres of crocheted doilies and couch covers which have themselves finally come to be more important than the upholstery. And here a table or a chair has been moved to disguise the worn places in the carpet; but the carpet has fought back by showing its weariness, with depressing uniformity, elsewhere on its surface.

Weariness has, in fact, won in this room. Everything has been polished, washed, sat on, used, scrubbed too often. All pretenses but living itself have long since vanished from the very atmosphere of this room.

Moreover, a section of this room, for it is not really a room unto itself, though the landlord's lease would make it seem so, slopes backward to provide a small kitchen area, where the family prepares the meals that are eaten in the living room proper, which must also serve as dining room. The single window that has been provided for these "two" rooms is located in this kitchen area. The sole natural light the family may enjoy in the course of a day is only that which fights its way through this little window.

At left, a door leads to a bedroom which is shared by MAMA and her daughter, BENEATHA. At right, opposite, is a second room (which in the beginning of the life of this apartment was probably a breakfast room) which serves as a bedroom for WALTER and his wife, RUTH.

Time: Sometime between World War II and the present.

Place: Chicago's Southside.

At Rise: It is morning dark in the living room. TRAVIS is asleep on the make-down bed at center. An alarm clock sounds from within the bedroom at right, and presently RUTH enters from that room and closes the door behind her. She crosses sleepily toward the window. As she passes her sleeping son she reaches down and shakes him a little.

At the window she raises the shade and a dusky Southside morning light comes in feebly. She fills a pot with water and puts it on to boil. She calls to the boy, between yawns, in a slightly muffled voice.

RUTH is about thirty. We can see that she was a pretty girl, even exceptionally so, but now it is apparent that life has been little that she expected, and disappointment has already begun to hang in her face. In a few years, before thirty-five even, she will be known among her people as a "settled woman"

She crosses to her son and gives him a good, final, rousing shake.

RUTH Come on now, boy, it's seven thirty! (Her son sits up at last, in a stupor of sleepiness) I say hurry up, Travis! You ain't the only person in the world got to use a bathroom! (The child, a sturdy, handsome little boy of ten or eleven, drags himself out of the bed and almost blindly takes his towels and "today's clothes" from drawers and a closet and goes out to the bathroom, which is in an outside hall and which is shared by another family or families on the same floor. RUTH crosses to the bedroom door at right and opens it and calls in to her husband) Walter Lee! . . . It's after seven thirty! Lemme see you do some waking up in there now! (She waits) You better get up from there, man! It's after seven thirty I tell you. (She waits again) All right, you just go ahead and lay there and next thing you know Travis be finished and Mr. Johnson'll be in there and you'll be fussing and cussing round here like a madman! And be late too! (She waits, at the end of patience) Walter Lee it's time for you to GET UP! (She waits another second and then starts to go into the bedroom, but is apparently satisfied that her husband has begun to get up. She stops, pulls the door to, and returns to the kitchen area. She wipes her face with a moist cloth and runs her fingers through her sleep-disheveled hair in a vain effort and ties an apron around her housecoat. The bedroom door at right opens and her husband stands in the doorway in his pajamas, which are rumpled and mismated. He is a lean, intense young man in his middle thirties, inclined to quick nervous movements and erratic speech habits and always in his voice there is a quality of indictment)

WALTER Is he out yet?

RUTH What you mean out? He ain't hardly got in there good yet.

26 A RAISIN IN THE SUN

WALTER (Wandering in, still more oriented to sleep than to a new day) Well, what was you doing all that yelling for if I can't even get in there yet? (Stopping and thinking) Check coming today?

RUTH They said Saturday and this is just Friday and I hopes to God you ain't going to get up here first thing this morning and start talking to me 'bout no money 'cause I 'bout don't want to hear it.

WALTER Something the matter with you this morning?

RUTH No I'm just sleepy as the devil. What kind of eggs you want?

WALTER Not scrambled. (RUTH starts to scramble eggs) Paper come? (RUTH points impatiently to the rolled up Tribune on the table, and he gets it and spreads it out and vaguely reads the front page) Set off another bomb yesterday.

RUTH (Maximum indifference) Did they?

WALTER (Looking up) What's the matter with you?

RUTH Ain't nothing the matter with me. And don't keep asking me that this morning.

WALTER Ain't nobody bothering you. (Reading the news of the day absently again) Say Colonel McCormick is sick.

RUTH (Affecting tea-party interest) Is he now? Poor thing.

WALTER (Sighing and looking at his watch) Oh, me. (He waits) Now what is that boy doing in that bathroom all this time? He just going to have to start getting up earlier. I can't be being late to work on account of him fooling around in there.

RUTH (Turning on him) Oh, no he ain't going to be getting up no earlier no such thing! It ain't his fault that he can't get to bed no earlier nights 'cause he got a bunch of crazy good-for-nothing clowns sitting up running their mouths in what is supposed to be his bedroom after ten o'clock at night . . .

WALTER That's what you mad about, ain't it? The things I want to talk about .with my friends just couldn't be important in your mind, could they?

(He rises and finds a cigarette in her handbag on the table and crosses to the little window and looks out, smoking and deeply enjoying this first one)

RUTH (Almost matter of factly, a complaint too automatic to deserve emphasis) Why you always got to smoke before you eat in the morning?

WALTER (At the window) Just look at 'em down there . . . Running and racing to work . . . (He turns and faces his wife and watches her a moment at the stove, and then, suddenly) You look young this morning, baby.

RUTH (Indifferently) Yeah?

WALTER Just for a second stirring them eggs. Just for a second it was you looked real young again. (He reaches for her; she crosses away. Then, drily) It's gone now you look like yourself again!

RUTH Man, if you don't shut up and leave me alone.

WALTER (Looking out to the street again) First thing a man ought to learn in life is not to make love to no colored woman first thing in the morning. You all some eeeevil people at eight o'clock in the morning.

(TRAVIS appears in the hall doorway, almost fully dressed and quite wide awake now, his towels and pajamas across his shoulders. He opens the door and signals for his father to make the bathroom in a hurry)

RUTH Sit down and have your breakfast, Travis.
TRAVIS Mama, this is Friday. (Gleefully) Check coming tomorrow, huh?

RUTH You get your mind off money and eat your breakfast.

TRAVIS (Eating) This is the morning we supposed to bring the fifty cents to school.

RUTH Well, I ain't got no fifty cents this morning.

TRAVIS Teacher say we have to.

RUTH I don't care what teacher say. I ain't got it. Eat your breakfast, Travis.

TRAVIS (Outraged) Gaaaleee! I don't ask her, she just gimme it sometimes!

RUTH Travis Willard Younger I got too much on me this morning to be

TRAVIS Maybe Daddy

TRAVIS (Outraged) Gaaaleee! I don't ask her, she just gimme it sometimes!
TRAVIS (Quickly, to the ally) I have to she won't gimme the fifty cents . . .

WALTER (To his wife only) Why not?

RUTH (Simply, and with flavor) 'Cause we don't have it.

A RAISIN IN THE SUN 31

WALTER (To RUTH only) What you tell the boy things like that for? (Reaching down into his pants with a rather important gesture) Here, son

(He hands the boy the coin, but his eyes are directed to his wife's. TRAVIS takes the money happily)

TRAVIS Thanks, Daddy.

(He starts out. RUTH watches both of them with murder in her eyes. WALTER stands and stares back at her with defiance, and suddenly reaches into his pocket again on an afterthought)

WALTER (Without even looking at his son, still staring hard at his wife) In fact, here's another fifty cents . . . Buy yourself some fruit today or take a taxicab to school or something!

TRAVIS Whoopee

(He leaps up and clasps his father around the middle with his legs, and they face each other in mutual appreciation; slowly WALTER LEE peeks around the boy to catch the violent rays from his wife's eyes and draws his head back as if shot)

WALTER You better get down now and get to school, man.

TRAVIS (At the door) O.K. Good-bye.

(He exits)

WALTER (After him, pointing with pride) That's my boy.

(Ruth looks at him in disgust and turns back to her work) You know what I was thinking 'bout in the bathroom this morning?

RUTH No.

WALTER How come you always try to be so pleasant!

RUTH What is there to be pleasant 'bout!

32 A RAISIN IN THE SUN

WALTER You want to know what I was thinking 'bout in the bathroom or not!

RUTH I know what you thinking 'bout.

WALTER (Ignoring her) 'Bout what me and Willy Harris was talking about last night.

RUTH (Immediately a refrain) Willy Harris is a good-for-nothing loudmouth.

WALTER Anybody who talks to me has got to be a good-for-nothing loudmouth, ain't he? And what you know about who is just a good-for-nothing loudmouth? Charlie Atkins was just a "good-for-nothing loudmouth" too, wasn't he? When he wanted me to go in the dry-cleaning business with him. And now he's grossing a hundred thousand a year. A hundred thousand dollars a year! You still call him a loudmouth!

RUTH (Bitterly) Oh, Walter Lee . . .

(She folds her head on her arms over the table)

WALTER (Rising and coming to her and standing over her) You tired, ain't you? Tired of everything. Me, the boy, the way we live this beat-up hole everything. Ain't you? (She doesn't look up, doesn't answer) So tired moaning and groaning all the time, but you wouldn't do nothing to help, would you? You couldn't be on my side that long for nothing, could you?

RUTH Walter, please leave me alone.

WALTER A man needs for a woman to back him up . . .

RUTH Walter

WALTER Mama would listen to you. You know she listen to you more than she do me and Bennie. She think more of you. All you have to do is just sit down with her when you drinking your coffee one morning and talking 'bout things like you do and (He sits down beside her and demonstrates graphically what he thinks her methods and tone should be) you just sip your coffee, see, and say easy like that you been thinking 'bout that deal Walter Lee is so interested in, 'bout the store and all, and sip some more coffee, like what you saying ain't really that important to you And the next thing you know, she be listening good and asking you questions and when I come home I can tell her the details. This ain't no fly-by-night proposition, baby. I mean we figured it out, me and Willy and Bobo.

RUTH (With a frown) Bobo?

WALTER Yeah. You see, this little liquor store we got in mind cost seventy-five thousand and we figured the initial investment on the place be 'bout thirty thousand, see. That be ten thousand each. Course, there's a couple of hundred you got to pay so's you don't spend your life just waiting for them clowns to let your license get RUTH You mean graft?

WALTER (Frowning impatiently) Don't call it that. See there, that just goes to show you what women understand about the world. Baby, don't nothing happen for you in this world 'less you pay somebody off!

RUTH Walter, leave me alone! (She raises her head and stares at him vigorously then says, more quietly) Eat your eggs, they gonna be cold.

WALTER (Straightening up from her and looking off) That's it. There you are. Man say to his woman: I got me a dream. His woman say: Eat your eggs. (Sadly, but gaining in power) Man say: I got to take hold of this here world, baby! And a woman will say: Eat your eggs and go to work. (Passionately now) Man say: I got to change my life, I'm choking to death, baby! And his woman say (In utter anguish as he brings his fists down on his thighs) Your eggs is getting cold!

RUTH (Softly) Walter, that ain't none of our money.

WALTER (Not listening at all or even looking at her) This morning, I was lookin' in the mirror and thinking about it ... I'm thirty-five years old; I been married eleven years and I got a boy who sleeps in the living room (Very, very quietly) and all I got to give him is stories about how rich white people live . . .

RUTH Eat your eggs, Walter.

WALTER (Slams the table and jumps up) DAMN MY EGGS DAMN ALL THE EGGS THAT EVER WAS!

RUTH Then go to work.

WALTER (Looking up at her) See I'm trying to talk to you 'bout myself (Shaking his head with the repetition) and all you can say is eat them eggs and go to work.

RUTH (Wearily) Honey, you never say nothing new. I listen to you every day, every night and every morning, and you never say nothing new. (Shrugging) So you would rather be Mr. Arnold than be his chauffeur. So I would rather be living in Buckingham Palace.

WALTER That is just what is wrong with the colored woman in this world . . . Don't understand about building their men up and making 'em feel like they somebody. Like they can do something.

RUTH (Drily, but to hurt) There are colored men who do things.

WALTER No thanks to the colored woman.

RUTH Well, being a colored woman, I guess I can't help myself none.

(She rises and gets the ironing board and sets it up and attacks a huge pile of rough-dried clothes, sprinkling them in preparation for the ironing and then rolling them into tight fat balls)

WALTER (Mumbling) We one group of men tied to a race of women with small minds!

(His sister BENEATHA enters. She is about twenty, as slim and intense as her brother. She is not as pretty as her sister-in-law, but her lean, almost intellectual face has a handsomeness of its own. She wears a bright-red flannel nightie, and her thick hair stands wildly about her head. Her speech is a mixture of many things; it is different from the rest of the family's insofar as education has permeated her sense of English and perhaps the Midwest rather than the South has finally at last won out in her inflection; but not altogether, because over all of it is a soft slurring and transformed use of vowels which is the decided influence of the Southside. She passes through the room without looking at either RUTH or WALTER and goes to the outside door and looks, a little blindly, out to the bathroom. She sees that it has been lost to the Johnsons. She closes the door with a sleepy vengeance and crosses to the table and sits down a little defeated)

BENEATHA I am going to start timing those people. WALTER You should get up earlier.

BENEATHA (Her face in her hands. She is still fighting the urge to go back to bed) Really would you suggest dawn? Where's the paper?

WALTER (Pushing the paper across the table to her as he studies her almost clinically, as though he has never seen her before) You a horrible-looking chick at this hour.

BENEATHA (Drily) Good morning, everybody. WALTER (Senselessly) How is school coming?

BENEATHA (In the same spirit) Lovely. Lovely. And you know, biology is the greatest. (Looking up at him) I dissected something that looked just like you yesterday.

WALTER I just wondered if you've made up your mind and everything.

BENEATHA (Gaining in sharpness and impatience) And what did I answer yesterday morning and the day before that?

RUTH (From the ironing board, like someone disinterested and old) Don't be so nasty, Bennie.

BENEATHA (Still to her brother) And the day before that and the day before that!

WALTER (Defensively) I'm interested in you. Something wrong with that? Ain't many girls who decide

WALTER and BENEATHA (In unison) "to be a doctor."
(Silence)

WALTER Have we figured out yet just exactly how much medical school is going to cost?

RUTH Walter Lee, why don't you leave that girl alone and get out of here to work?

BENEATHA (Exits to the bathroom and bangs on the door) Come on out of there, please!

(She comes back into the room)

WALTER (Looking at his sister intently) You know the check is coming tomorrow.

BENEATHA (Turning on him with a sharpness all her own) That money belongs to Mama, Walter, and it's for her to decide how she wants to use it. I don't care if she wants to buy a house or a rocket ship or just nail it up somewhere and look at it. It's hers. Not ours hers.

WALTER (Bitterly) Now ain't that fine! You just got your mother's interest at heart, ain't you, girl? You such a nice girl but if Mama got that money she can always take a few thousand and help you through school too can't she?

BENEATHA I have never asked anyone around here to do anything for me!

WALTER No! And the line between asking and just accepting when the time comes is big and wide ain't it!

BENEATHA (With jury) What do you want from me, Brother that I quit school or just drop dead, which!

WALTER I don't want nothing but for you to stop acting holy 'round here. Me and Ruth done made some sacrifices for you why can't you do something for the family?

RUTH Walter, don't be dragging me in it.

WALTER You are in it Don't you get up and go work in somebody's kitchen for the last three years to help put clothes on her back?

RUTH Oh, Walter that's not fair . . .

WALTER It ain't that nobody expects you to get on your knees and say thank you, Brother; thank you, Ruth; thank you, Mama and thank you, Travis, for wearing the same pair of shoes for two semesters

BENEATHA (Dropping to her knees) Well I do all right? thank everybody! And forgive me for ever wanting to be anything at all! (Pursuing him on her knees across the floor) FORGIVE ME, FORGIVE ME, FORGIVE ME!

38 A RAISIN IN THE SUN

RUTH Please stop it! Your mama'U hear you.

WALTER Who the hell told you you had to be a doctor? If you so crazy 'bout messing 'round with sick people then go be a nurse like other women or just get married and be quiet . . .

BENEATHA Well you finally got it said ... It took you three years but you finally got it said. Walter, give up; leave me alone it's Mama's money.

WALTER He was my father, too!

BENEATHA So what? He was mine, too and Travis' grandfather but the insurance money belongs to Mama. Picking on me is not going to make her give it to you to invest in any liquor stores (Underbreath, dropping into a chair) and I for one say, God bless Mama for that!

WALTER (To RUTH) See did you hear? Did you hear!

RUTH Honey, please go to work.

WALTER Nobody in this house is ever going to understand me.

BENEATHA Because you're a nut.

WALTER Who's a nut?

BENEATHA You you are a nut. Thee is mad, boy.

WALTER (Looking at his wife and his sister from the door, very sadly) The world's most backward race of people, and that's a fact.

BENEATHA (Turning slowly in her chair) And then there are all those prophets who would lead us out of the wilderness (WALTER slams out of the house) into the swamps!

RUTH Bennie, why you always gotta be pickin' on your brother? Can't you be a little sweeter sometimes? (Door opens. WALTER walks in. He fumbles with his cap, starts to speak, clears throat, looks everywhere but at RUTH. Finally:

A RAISIN IN THE SUN 39

WALTER (To RUTH) I need some money for carfare.

RUTH (Looks at him, then warms; teasing, but tenderly) Fifty cents? (She goes to her bag and gets money) Here take a taxi!

(WALTER exits. MAMA enters. She is a woman in her early sixties, full-bodied and strong. She is one of those women of a certain grace and beauty who wear it so unobtrusively that it takes a while to notice. Her dark-brown face is surrounded by the total whiteness of her hair, and, being a woman who has adjusted to many things in life and overcome many more, her face is full of strength. She has, we can see, wit and faith of a kind that keep her eyes lit and full of interest and expectancy. She is, in a word, a beautiful woman. Her bearing is perhaps most like the noble bearing of the women of the Hereros of Southwest Africa rather as if she imagines that as she walks she still bears a basket or a vessel upon her head. Her speech, on the other hand, is as careless as her carriage is precise she is inclined to slur everything but her voice is perhaps not so much quiet as simply soft)

MAMA Who that 'round here slamming doors at this hour?

(See crosses through the room, goes to the window, opens it, and brings in a feeble little plant growing doggedly in a small pot on the window sill. She feels the dirt and puts it back out)

RUTH That was Walter Lee. He and Bennie was at it again.

40 A RAISIN IN THE SUN

MAMA My children and they tempers. Lord, if this little old plant don't get more sun than it's been getting it ain't never going to see spring again. (She turns from the window) What's the matter with you this morning, Ruth? You looks right peaked. You aiming to iron all them things? Leave some for me. I'll get to 'em this afternoon. Bennie honey, it's too drafty for you to be sitting 'round half dressed. Where's your robe?

BENEATHA In the cleaners.

MAMA Well, go get mine and put it on.

BENEATHA I'm not cold, Mama, honest.

MAMA I know but you so thin . . .

BENEATHA (Irritably) Mama, I'm not cold.

MAMA (Seeing the make-down bed as TRAVIS has left it) Lord have mercy, look at that poor bed. Bless his heart he tries, don't he?

(She moves to the bed TRAVIS has sloppily made up)

RUTH No he don't half try at all ’cause he knows you going to come along behind him and fix everything. That's just how come he don't know how to do nothing right now you done spoiled that boy so.

MAMA (Folding bedding) Well he's a little boy* Ain't supposed to know 'bout housekeeping. My baby, that's what he is. What you fix for his breakfast this morning?

RUTH (Angrily) I feed my son, Lena!

MAMA I ain't meddling (Underbreath; busy-bodyish) I just noticed all last week he had cold cereal, and when it starts getting this chilly in the fall a child ought to have some hot grits or something when he goes out in the cold

A RAISIN IN THE SUN 41

RUTH (Furious) I gave him hot oats is that all right!

MAMA I ain't meddling. (Pause) Put a lot of nice butter on it? (RUTH shoots her an angry look and does not reply) He likes lots of butter.

RUTH (Exasperated) Lena

MAMA (To BENEATHA. MAMA is inclined to wander conversationally sometimes) What was you and your brother fussing 'bout this morning?

BENEATHA It's not important, Mama.

(She gets up and goes to look out at the bathroom, which is apparently free, and she picks up her towels and rushes out)

MAMA What was they fighting about?

RUTH Now you know as well as I do.

MAMA (Shaking her head) Brother still worrying himself sick about that money?

RUTH You know he is.

MAMA You had breakfast?

RUTH Some coffee.

MAMA Girl, you better start eating and looking after yourself better. You almost thin as Travis.

RUTH Lena

MAMA Un-hunh?

RUTH What are you going to do with it?

MAMA Now don't you start, child. It's too early in the morning to be talking about money. It ain't Christian.
RUTH It's just that he got his heart set on that store

42 A RAISIN IN THE SUN

MAMA You mean that liquor store that Willy Harris want him to invest in?

RUTH Yes

MAMA We ain't no business people, Ruth. We just plain working folks.

RUTH Ain't nobody business people till they go into business. Walter Lee say colored people ain't never going to start getting ahead till they start gambling on some different kinds of things in the world investments and things.

MAMA What done got into you, girl? Walter Lee done finally sold you on investing.

RUTH No. Mama, something is happening between Walter and me. I don't know what it is but he needs something something I can't give him any more. He needs this chance, Lena.

MAMA (Frowning deeply) But liquor, honey

RUTH Well like Walter say I spec people going to always be drinking themselves some liquor.

MAMA Well whether they drinks it or not ain't none of my business. But whether I go into business selling it to 'em is, and I don't want that on my ledger this late in life. (Stopping suddenly and studying her daughter-in-law) Ruth Younger, what's the matter with you today? You look like you could fall over right there.

RUTH I'm tired.

MAMA Then you better stay home from work today,

RUTH I can't stay home. She'd be calling up the agency and screaming at them, "My girl didn't come in today send me somebody! My girl didn't come in!" Oh, she just have a fit ...

44 A RAISIN IN THE SUN

MAMA Well, let her have it. I'll just call her up and say you got the flu

RUTH (Laughing) Why the flu?

MAMA 'Cause it sounds respectable to 'em. Something white people get, too. They know 'bout the flu. Otherwise they think you been cut up or something when you tell 'em you sick.

RUTH I got to go in. We need the money.

MAMA Somebody would of thought my children done all but starved to death the way they talk about money here late. Child, we got a great big old check coming tomorrow.

RUTH (Sincerely, but also self-righteously) Now that's your money. It ain't got nothing to do with me. We all feel like that Walter and Bennie and me even Travis.

MAMA (Thoughtfully, and suddenly very far away) Ten thousand dollars

RUTH Sure is wonderful. MAMA Ten thousand dollars.

RUTH You know what you should do, Miss Lena? You should take yourself a trip somewhere. To Europe or South America or someplace

MAMA (Throwing up her hands at the thought) Oh, child!

RUTH I'm serious. Just pack up and leave! Go on away and enjoy yourself some. Forget about the family and have yourself a ball for once in your life

MAMA (Drily) You sound like I'm just about ready to die. Who'd go with me? What I look like wandering 'round Europe by myself?

RUTH Shoot these here rich white women do it all the time. They don't think nothing of packing up they suitcases and piling on one of them big steamships and swoosh! they gone, child.

MAMA Something always told me I wasn't no rich white woman.

RUTH Well what are you going to do with it then?

MAMA I ain't rightly decided. (Thinking. She speaks now with emphasis) Some of it got to be put away for Beneatha and her schoolin' and ain't nothing going to touch that part of it. Nothing. (She waits several seconds, trying to make up her mind about something, and looks at RUTH a little tentatively before going on) Been thinking that we maybe could meet the notes on a little old two-story somewhere, with a yard where Travis could play in the summertime, if we use part of the insurance for a down payment and everybody kind of pitch in. I could maybe take on a little day work again, few days a week

RUTH (Studying her mother-in-law furtively and concentrating on her ironing, anxious to encourage without seeming to) Well, Lord knows, we've put enough rent into this here rat trap to pay for four houses by now MAMA (Looking up at the words t( rat trap" and then looking around and leaning back and sighing in a suddenly reflective mood ) "Rat trap" yes, that's all it is. (Smiling) I remember just as well the day me and Big Walter moved in here. Hadn't been married but two weeks and wasn't planning on living here no more than a year. (She shakes her head at the dissolved dream) We was going to set away, little by little, don't you know, and buy a little place out in Morgan Park. We had even picked out the house. (Chuckling a little)

A RAISIN IN THE SUN 45

Looks right dumpy today. But Lord, child, you should know all the dreams I had 'bout buying that house and fixing it up and making me a little garden in the back (She waits and stops smiling) And didn't none of it happen.

(Dropping her hands in a futile gesture)

RUTH (Keeps her head down, ironing) Yes, life can be a barrel of disappointments, sometimes.

MAMA Honey, Big Walter would come in here some nights back then and slump down on that couch there and just look at the rug, and look at me and look at the rug and then back at me and I'd know he was down then . . . really down. (After a second very long and thoughtful pause; she is seeing back to times that only she can see) And then, Lord, when I lost that baby little Claude I almost thought I was going to lose Big Walter too. Oh, that man grieved hisself! He was one man to love his children.

RUTH Ain't nothin' can tear at you like losin' your baby.

MAMA I guess that's how come that man finally worked hisself to death like he done. Like he was fighting his own war with this here world that took his baby from him.

RUTH He sure was a fine man, all right. I always liked Mr. Younger.

MAMA Crazy 'bout his children! God knows there was plenty wrong with Walter Younger hard-headed, mean, kind of wild with women plenty wrong with him. But he sure loved his children. Always wanted them to have something be something. That's where Brother gets all these notions, I reckon. Big Walter used to say, he'd get right wet in the eyes sometimes, lean his head back with the water standing in his eyes and say, "Seem like God didn't see fit to give the black man nothing but dreams but He did give us children to make them dreams seem worth while." (She smiles) He could talk like that, don't you know. RUTH Yes, he sure could. He was a good man, Mr. Younger.

MAMA Yes, a fine man just couldn't never catch up with his dreams, that's all.

(BENEATHA comes in, brushing her hair and looking up to the ceiling, where the sound of a vacuum cleaner has started up)

BENEATHA What could be so dirty on that woman's rugs that she has to vacuum them every single day?

RUTH I wish certain young women 'round here who I could name would take inspiration about certain rugs in a certain apartment I could also mention.

BENEATHA (Shrugging) How much cleaning can a house need, for Christ's sakes.

MAMA (Not liking the Lord's name used thus) Bennie! RUTH Just listen to her just listen!

BENEATHA Oh, God!

MAMA If you use the Lord's name just one more time

BENEATHA (A bit of a whine) Oh, Mama

RUTH Fresh just fresh as salt, this girl!

BENEATHA (Drily) Well if the salt loses its savor

MAMA Now that will do. I just ain't going to have you 'round here reciting the scriptures in vain you hear me?

BENEATHA How did I manage to get on everybody's wrong side by just walking into a room?

A RAISIN IN THE SUN 47

RUTH If you weren't so fresh

BENEATHA Ruth, I'm twenty years old.

MAMA What time you be home from school today?

BENEATHA Kind of late. (With enthusiasm) Madeline is going to start my guitar lessons today.

(MAMA and RUTH look up with the same expression)

MAMA Your what kind of lessons?

BENEATHA Guitar.

RUTH Oh, Father!

MAMA How come you done taken it in your mind to learn to play the guitar?

BENEATHA I just want to 9 that's all.

MAMA (Smiling) Lord, child, don't you know what to get tired of this now like you got tired of that little do with yourself? How long it going to be before you play-acting group you joined last year? (Looking at RUTH) And what was it the year before that?

RUTH The horseback-riding club for which she bought that fifty-five-dollar riding habit that's been hanging in the closet ever since!

MAMA (To BENEATHA) Why you got to flit so from one thing to another, baby?

BENEATHA (Sharply) I just want to learn to play the guitar. Is there anything wrong with that?

MAMA Ain't nobody trying to stop you. I just wonders sometimes why you has to flit so from one thing to another all the time. You ain't never done nothing with all that camera equipment you brought home.

48 A RAISIN IN THE SUN

BENEATHA I don't flit! I I experiment with different forms of expression

RUTH Like riding a horse?

BENEATHA People have to express themselves one way or another.

MAMA What is it you want to express?

BENEATHA (Angrily) Me! (MAMA and RUTH look at each other and burst into raucous laughter) Don't worry I don't expect you to understand.

MAMA (To change the subject) Who you going out with tomorrow night?

BENEATHA (With displeasure) George Murchison again.

MAMA (Pleased) Oh you getting a little sweet on him?

RUTH You ask me, this child ain't sweet on nobody but herself (Vnderbreath) Express herself! (They laugh)

BENEATHA Oh I like George all right, Mama. I mean I like him enough to go out with him and stuff, but

RUTH You ask me, this child ain't sweet on nobody but herself (Vnderbreath) Express herself! (They laugh)

MAMA Stop picking at her now, Ruth. (She chuckles then a suspicious sudden look at her daughter as she turns in her chair for emphasis) What DOES it mean?

BENEATHA (Wearily) Oh, I just mean I couldn't ever really be serious about George. He's he's so shallow.

RUTH Shallow what do you mean he's shallow? He's Rich!

MAMA Hush, Ruth.

BENEATHA I know he's rich. He knows he's rich, too.

A RAISIN IN THE SUN 49

RUTH Well what other qualities a man got to have to satisfy you, little girl?

BENEATHA You wouldn't even begin to understand. Anybody who married Walter could not possibly understand.

MAMA (Outraged) What kind of way is that to talk about your brother?

BENEATHA Brother is a flip let's face it.

MAMA (To RUTH, helplessly) What's a flip?

RUTH (Glad to add kindling) She's saying he's crazy.

BENEATHA Not crazy. Brother isn't really crazy yet he he's an elaborate neurotic.

MAMA Hush your mouth!

BENEATHA As for George. Well. George looks good he's got a beautiful car and he takes me to nice places and, as my sister-in-law says, he is probably the richest boy I will ever get to know and I even like him sometimes but if the Youngers are sitting around waiting to see if their little Bennie is going to tie up the family with the Murchisons, they are wasting their time.

RUTH You mean you wouldn't marry George Murchison if he asked you someday? That pretty, rich thing? Honey, I knew you was odd BENEATHA No I would not marry him if all I felt for him was what I feel now. Besides, George's family wouldn't really like it

MAMA Why not?

BENEATHA Oh, Mama The Murchisons are honest-to-God-real-Kve-rich colored people, and the only people in the world who are more snobbish than rich white people are rich colored people. I thought everybody knew that. I've met Mrs. Murchison. She's a scene!

50 A RAISIN IN THE SUN

MAMA You must not dislike people 'cause they well off, honey.

BENEATHA Why not? It makes just as much sense as disliking people 'cause they are poor, and lots of people do that.

RUTH (A wisdom-of-the-ages manner. To MAMA) Well, she'll get over some of this BENEATHA Get over it? What are you talking about, Ruth? Listen, I'm going to be a doctor. I'm not worried about who I'm going to marry yet if I ever get married.

MAMA and RUTH If!
MAMA Now, Bennie

BENEATHA Oh, I probably will ... but first I'm going to be a doctor, and George, for one, still thinks that's pretty funny. I couldn't be bothered with that. I am going to be a doctor and everybody around here better understand that!

MAMA (Kindly) 'Course you going to be a doctor, honey, God willing.
BENEATHA (Drily) God hasn't got a thing to do with it.
MAMA Beneatha that just wasn't necessary.
BENEATHA Well neither is God. I get sick of hearing about God.

MAMA Beneatha!

BENEATHA I mean it! I'm just tired of hearing about God all the time. What has He-got to do with anything? Does he pay tuition?

A RAISIN IN THE SUN 51

MAMA You 'bout to get your fresh little jaw slapped!
RUTH That's just what she needs, all right!

BENEATHA Why? Why can't I say what I want to around here, like everybody else?

MAMA It don't sound nice for a young girl to say things like that you wasn't brought up that way. Me and your father went to trouble to get you and Brother to church every Sunday.

BENEATHA Mama, you don't understand. It's all a matter of ideas, and God is just one idea I don't accept. It's not important. I am not going out and be immoral or commit crimes because I don't believe in God. I don't even think about it. It's just that I get tired of Him getting credit for all the things the human race achieves through its own stubborn effort. There simply is no blasted God there is only man and it is he who makes miracles!

(MAMA absorbs this speech, studies her daughter and rises slowly and crosses to BENEATHA and slaps her powerfully across the face. After, there is only silence and the daughter drops her eyes from her mother's face, and MAMA is very tall before her)

BENEATHA In my mother's house there is still God.

(A long pause)

MAMA (Walking away from BENEATHA, too disturbed for triumphant posture. Stopping and turning back to her daughter) There are some ideas we ain't going to have in this house. Not long as I am at the head of this family.

52 A RAISIN IN THE SUN

MAMA Yes, ma'am.

(MAMA walks out of the room)

RUTH (Almost gently, with profound understanding) You think you a woman, Bennie but you still a little girl. What you did was childish so you got treated like a child.

BENEATHA I see. (Quietly)

I also see that everybody thinks it's all right for Mama to be a tyrant. But all the tyranny in the world will never put a God in the heavens!

(She picks up her books and goes out. Pause)

RUTH (Goes to MAMA'S door) She said she was sorry.

MAMA (Coming out, going to her plant) They frightens me, Ruth. My children.

RUTH You got good children, Lena. They just a little off sometimes but they're good.

MAMA No there's something come down between me and them that don't let us understand each other and I don't know what it is. One done almost lost his mind thinking 'bout money all the time and the other done commence to talk about things I can't seem to understand in no form or fashion. What is it that's changing, Ruth.

RUTH (Soothingly, older than her years) Now . . . you taking it all too seriously. You just got strong-willed children and it takes a strong woman like you to keep 'em in hand.

MAMA (Looking at her plant and sprinkling a little water on it) They spirited all right, my children. Got to admit they got spirit Bennie and Walter. Like this little old plant that ain't never had enough sunshine or nothing and look at it ...

A RAISIN IN THE SUN 53

(She has her back to RUTH, who has had to stop ironing and lean against something and put the back of her hand to her forehead)
RUTH (Trying to keep MAMA from noticing) You . . . sure . . . loves that little old thing, don't you? . . .

MAMA Well, I always wanted me a garden like I used to see sometimes at the back of the houses down home. This plant is close as I ever got to having one. (She looks out of the window as she replaces the plant) Lord, ain't nothing as dreary as the view from this window on a dreary day, is there? Why ain't you singing this morning, Ruth? Sing that "No Ways Tired." That song always lifts me up so (She turns at last to see that RUTH has slipped quietly to the floor, in a state of semiconsciousness) Ruth! Ruth honey what's the matter with you . . . Ruth!

Curtain

SCENE Two

It is the following morning; a Saturday morning, and house cleaning is in progress at the YOUNGERS. Furniture has been shoved hither and yon and MAMA is giving the kitchen-area walls a washing down. BENEATHA, in dungarees, with a handkerchief tied around her face, is spraying insecticide into the cracks in the walls. As they work, the radio is on and a Southside disk-jockey program is inappropriately filling the house with a rather exotic saxophone blues. TRAVIS, the sole idle one, is leaning on his arms, looking out of the window.

TRAVIS Grandmama, that stuff Bennie is using smells awful. Can I go downstairs, please?

MAMA Did you get all them chores done already? I ain't seen you doing much.

TRAVIS Yes'm finished early. Where did Mama go this morning?

MAMA (Looking at BENEATHA) She had to go on a little errand.

(The phone rings. BENEATHA runs to answer it and reaches it before WALTER, who has entered from bedroom)

TRAVIS Where?

MAMA To tend to her business.

BENEATHA Haylo . . . (Disappointed) Yes, he is. (She tosses the phone to WALTER, who barely catches it) It's Willie Harris again.

WALTER (As privately as possible under MAMA'S gaze) Hello, Willie. Did you get the papers from the lawyer?

A RAISIN IN THE SUN 55

. . . No, not yet. I told you the mailman doesn't get here till ten-thirty . . . No, I'll come there . . . Yeah! Right away. (He hangs up and goes for his coat)

BENEATHA Brother, where did Ruth go?

WALTER (As he exits) How should I know!

TRAVIS Aw come on, Grandma. Can I go outside?

MAMA Oh, I guess so. You stay right in front of the house, though, and keep a good lookout for the postman.

TRAVIS Yes'm. (He darts into bedroom for stickball and bat, reenters, and sees BENEATHA on her knees spraying under sofa with behind upraised. He edges closer to the target, takes aim, and lets her have it. She screams) Leave them poor little cockroaches alone, they ain't bothering you none! (He runs as she swings the spray-gun at him viciously and playfully) Grandma! Grandma!

MAMA Look out there, girl, before you be spilling some of that stuff on that child!

TRAVIS (Safely behind the bastion of MAMA) That's right look out, now! (He exits)

BENEATHA (Drily) I can't imagine that it would hurt him it has never hurt the roaches.

MAMA Well, little boys' hides ain't as tough as Southside roaches. You better get over there behind the bureau. I seen one marching out of there like Napoleon yesterday.

BENEATHA There's really only one way to get rid of them, Mama

MAMA HOW?

BENEATHA Set fire to this building! Mama, where did Ruth go?

56 A RAISIN IN THE SUN

MAMA (Looking at her with meaning) To the doctor, I think.

BENEATHA The doctor? What's the matter? (They exchange glances) You don't think MAMA (With her sense of drama) Now I ain't saying what I think. But I ain't never been wrong 'bout a woman neither.

(The phone rings')

BENEATHA (At the phone) Hay-lo . . . (Pause, and a moment of recognition) Well when did you get back! . . . And how was it? ... Of course I've missed you in my way . . . This morning? No . . . house cleaning and all that and Mama hates it if I let people come over when the house is like this . . . You have? Well, that's different . . . What is it Oh, what the hell, come on over . . . Right, see you then. Arrividerci. (She hangs up)
MAMA (Who has listened vigorously, as is her habit)
Who is that you inviting over here with this house looking like this? You ain't got the pride you was born with!

BENEATHA Asagai doesn't care how houses look, Mama he's an intellectual.

MAMA Who?

BENEATHA Asagai Joseph Asagai. He's an African boy
I met on campus. He's been studying in Canada all summer.

MAMA What's his name?

BENEATHA Asagai, Joseph. Ah-sah-guy . . . He's from Nigeria.

MAMA Oh, that's the little country that was founded by slaves way back . . .

A RAISIN IN THE SUN 57

BENEATHA No, Mama that* s Liberia.
MAMA I don't think I never met no African before.

BENEATHA Well, do me a favor and don't ask him a whole lot of ignorant questions about Africans. I mean, do they wear clothes and all that

MAMA Well, now, I guess if you think we so ignorant 'round here maybe you shouldn't bring your friends here

BENEATHA It's just that people ask such crazy things.
All anyone seems to know about when it comes to Africa is Tarzan

MAMA (Indignantly) Why should I know anything about Africa?

BENEATHA Why do you give money at church for the missionary work?

MAMA Well, that's to help save people.

BENEATHA You mean save them from heathenism

MAMA (Innocently) Yes.

BENEATHA I'm afraid they need more salvation from the British and the French.

(RUTH comes in forlornly and pulls off her coat with dejection. They both turn to look at her)

RUTH (Dispiritedly) Well, I guess from all the happy faces everybody knows.

BENEATHA You pregnant?
MAMA Lord have mercy, I sure hope it's a little old girl.

Travis ought to have a sister.

(BENEATHA and RUTH give her a hopeless look for this grandmotherly enthusiasm)

58 A RAISIN IN THE SUN

BENEATHA How far along are you?
RUTH Two months.

BENEATHA Did you mean to? I mean did you plan it or was it an accident?

MAMA What do you know about planning or not planing?

BENEATHA Oh, Mama.

RUTH (Wearily) She's twenty years old, Lena.

BENEATHA Did you plan it, Ruth?

RUTH Mind your own business.

BENEATHA It is my business where is he going to live, on the roof? (There is silence following the remark as the three women react to the sense of it) Gee I didn't mean that, Ruth, honest. Gee, I don't feel like that at all. I I think it is wonderful.

RUTH (Dully) Wonderful.
BENEATHA Yes really.

MAMA (Looking at RUTH, worried) Doctor say everything going to be all right?

RUTH (Far away) Yes she says everything is going to be fine . . .

MAMA (Immediately suspicious) "She" What doctor you went to?

(RUTH folds over, near hysteria)

MAMA (Worriedly hovering over RUTH) Ruth honey what's the matter with you you sick?

(RUTH has her fists clenched on her thighs and is fighting hard to suppress a scream that seems to be rising in her)

A RAISIN IN THE SUN 59

BENEATHA What's the matter with her, Mama?

MAMA (Working her fingers in RUTH'S shoulders to relax her) She be all right. Women gets right depressed sometimes when they get her way. (Speaking softly, expertly, rapidly) Now you just relax. That's right . . .
just lean back, don't think 'bout nothing at all ... nothing at all “RUTH I'm all right . . .

(The glassy-eyed look melts and then she collapses into a fit of heavy sobbing. The bell rings)

BENEATHA Oh, my God that must be Asagai.

MAMA (To RUTH) Come on now, honey. You need to lie down and rest awhile . . . then have some nice hot food.

(They exit, RUTH'S weight on her mother-in-law.

BENEATHA, herself profoundly disturbed, opens the door to admit a rather dramatic-looking young man with a large package)

ASAGAI Hello, Alaiyo

BENEATHA (Holding the door open and regarding him with pleasure) Hello . . . (Long pause) Well come in. And please excuse everything. My mother was very upset about my letting anyone come here with the place like this.

ASAGAI' (Coming into the room) You look disturbed too . . . Is something wrong?

BENEATHA (Still at the door, absentely) Yes . . . we've all got acute ghetto-itus. (She smiles and comes toward him, finding a cigarette and sitting) So sit down! No! Wait! (She whips the spray gun off sofa where she had left it and puts the cushions back. At last perches on arm of sofa. He sits) So, how was Canada?

ASAGAI (Handing her the package) Open it and see.

BENEATHA (Eagerly opening the package and drawing out some records and the colorful robes of a Nigerian woman) Oh, Asagai! . . . You got them for me! . . . How beautiful . . . and the records too! (She lifts out the robes and runs to the mirror with them and holds the drapery up in front of herself)

ASAGAI (Coming to her at the mirror) I shall have to teach you how to drape it properly. (He flings the material about her for the moment and stands back to look at her) Alh Oh-pay-gay--day, oh-gbah-ju-shay. (A Yoruba exclamation for admiration) You wear it well . . . very well . . . mutilated hair and all.

A RAISIN IN THE SUN

ASAGAI Hello, Alaiyo

BENEATHA (Holding the door open and regarding him with pleasure) Hello . . . (Long pause) Well come in. And please excuse everything. My mother was very upset about my letting anyone come here with the place like this.

ASAGAI' (Coming into the room) You look disturbed too . . . Is something wrong?

BENEATHA (Still at the door, absolutely) Yes . . . we've all got acute ghetto-itus. (She smiles and comes toward him, finding a cigarette and sitting) So sit down! No! Wait! (She whips the spray gun off sofa where she had left it and puts the cushions back. At last perches on arm of sofa. He sits) So, how was Canada?

BENEATHA (Turning suddenly) My hair what's wrong with my hair?

ASAGAI (Shrugging) Were you born with it like that?

BENEATHA (Reaching up to touch it) No . . . of course not.

(ASAGAI) You know perfectly well how . . . as crinkly as yours . . . that's how.

ASAGAI And it is ugly to you that way?

BENEATHA (Quickly) Oh, no not ugly . . . (More slowly, apologetically) But it's so hard to manage when it's, well raw.

ASAGAI And to accommodate that you mutilate it every week?

BENEATHA It's not mutilation!

ASAGAI (Laughing aloud at her seriousness) Oh ... please! I am only teasing you because you are so very serious about these things. (He stands back from her and folds his arms across his chest as he watches her pulling at her hair and frowning in the minor) Do you remember the first time you met me at school? . . . (He laughs) You came up to me and you said and you said and I thought you were the most serious little thing I had ever seen you said: (He imitates her) "Mr. Asagai I want very much to talk with you. About Africa. You see, Mr. Asagai, I am looking for my identity!"

BENEATHA (Turning to him, not laughing) Yes (Her face is quizzical, profoundly disturbed)
ASAGAI (Still teasing and reaching out and taking her face in his hands and turning her profile to him) Well . . . it is true that this is not so much a profile of a Hollywood queen as perhaps a queen of the Nile (A mock dismissal of the importance of the question) But what does it matter? Assimilationism is so popular in your country.

BENEATHA (Wheeling, passionately, sharply) I am not an assimilationist!

ASAGAI (The protest hangs in the room for a moment and ASAGAI studies her, his laughter fading) Such a serious one, (There is a pause) So you like the robes? You must take excellent care of them they are from my sister's personal wardrobe.

BENEATHA (With incredulity) You you sent all the way home for me?

ASAGAI (With charm) For you I would do much more . . . Well, that is what I came for. I must go.

BENEATHA Will you call me Monday?

ASAGAI Yes . . . We have a great deal to talk about. I mean about identity and time and all that.

BENEATHA Time?

ASAGAI Yes. About how much time one needs to know what one feels.

BENEATHA You see! You never understood that there is more than one kind of feeling which can exist between a man and a woman or, at least, there should be.

ASAGAI (Shaking his head negatively but gently) No. Between a man and a woman there need be only one kind of feeling. I have that for you . . . Now even . . . right this moment ...

A RAISIN IN THE SUN 63

BENEATHA I know and by itself it won't do. I can find that anywhere.

ASAGAI For a woman it should be enough.

BENEATHA I know because that's what it says in all the novels that men write. But it isn't. Go ahead and laugh but I'm not interested in being someone's little episode in America or (With feminine vengeance) one of them! (ASAGAI has burst into laughter again) That's funny as hell, huh!

ASAGAI It's just that every American girl I have known has said that to me. White black in this you are all the same. And the same speech, too!

BENEATHA (Angrily) Yuk, yuk, yuk!

ASAGAI It's how you can be sure that the world's most liberated women are not liberated at all. You all talk about it too much!

(MAMA enters and is immediately all social charm because of the presence of a guest)

BENEATHA Oh Mama this is Mr. Asagai.

MAMA How do you do?

ASAGAI (Total politeness to an elder) How do you do, Mrs. Younger. Please forgive me for coming at such an outrageous hour on a Saturday.

MAMA Well, you are quite welcome. I just hope you understand that our house don't always look like this. (Chatterish) You must come again. I would love to here all about (Not sure of the name) your country. I think it's so sad the way our American Negroes don't know nothing about Africa 'cept Tarzan and all that. And all that money they pour into these churches when they ought to be helping you people over there drive out them French and Englishmen done taken away your land.

(The mother flashes a slightly superior look at her daughter upon completion of the recitation)

ASAGAI (Taken aback by this sudden and acutely unrelated expression of sympathy) Yes ... yes ...

MAMA (Smiling at him suddenly and relaxing and looking over) How many miles is it from here to where you come from?

ASAGAI Many thousands.

MAMA (Looking at him as she would WALTER) I bet you don't half look after yourself, being away from your mama either. I spec you better come 'round here from time to time to get yourself some decent home-cooked meals . . .

ASAGAI (Moved) Thank you. Thank you very much. (They are all quiet, then ) Well ... I must go. I will call you Monday, Alaiyo.

MAMA What's that he call you?

ASAGAI Oh "Alaiyo." I hope you don't mind. It is what you would call a nickname, I think. It is a Yoruba word. I am a Yoruba.

MAMA (Looking at BENEATHA) I I thought he was from (Uncertain)

ASAGAI (Understanding) Nigeria is my country. Yoruba is my tribal origin.

BENEATHA You didn't tell us what Alaiyo means . . . for all I know, you might be calling me Little Idiot or something . . .

A RAISIN IN THE SUN 65

ASAGAI Well . . . let me see . . . I do not know how just to explain it . . . The sense of a thing can be so different when it changes languages.

BENEATHA You're evading.

ASAGAI No really it is difficult . . . (Thinking) It means ... it means One for Whom Bread Food Is Not Enough. (He looks at her) Is that all right?

BENEATHA (Understanding, softly) Thank you.

MAMA (Looking from one to the other and not understanding any of it) Well . . . that's nice . . . You must come see us again Mr.

ASAGAI Ah-sah-guy * * .

MAMA Yes . . . Do come again.

ASAGAI Good-bye, (He exits)

MAMA (After him) Lord, that's a pretty thing just went out here! (Insinuatingly, to her daughter) Yes, I guess I see why we done commence to get so interested in Africa 'round here. Missionaries my aunt Jenny! (She exits)

BENEATHA Oh, Mama! . . .

(She picks up the Nigerian dress and holds it up to her in front of the mirror again. She sets the headdress on haphazardly and then notices her hair again and clutches at it and then replaces the headdress and frowns at herself. Then she starts to wriggle in front of the mirror as she thinks a Nigerian woman might. TRAVIS enters and stands regarding her)

TRAVIS What's the matter, girl, you cracking up?

BENEATHA Shut Up.

(She pulls the headdress off and looks at herself in the mirror and clutches at her hair again and squinches her eyes as if trying to imagine something. Then, suddenly, she gets her raincoat and kerchief and hurriedly prepares for going out)

MAMA (Coming back into the room) She's resting now. Travis, baby, run next door and ask Miss Johnson to please let me have a little kitchen cleanser. This here can is empty as Jacob's kettle.

TRAVIS I just came in.

MAMA Do as you told. (He exits and she looks at her daughter) Where you going?

BENEATHA (Halting at the door) To become a queen of the Nile!

(She exits in a breathless blaze of glory. RUTH appears in the bedroom doorway)

MAMA Who told you to get up?

RUTH Ain't nothing wrong with me to be lying in no bed for. Where did Bennie go?

MAMA (Drumming her fingers) Far as I could make out to Egypt. (RUTH just looks at her) What time is it getting to?

RUTH Ten twenty. And the mailman going to ring that bell this morning just like he done every morning for the last umpteen years.

(TRAVIS comes in with the cleanser can)

TRAVIS She say to tell you that she don't have much.

MAMA (Angrily) Lord, some people I could name sure is tight-fisted! (Directing her grandson) Mark two cans of cleanser down on the list there. If she that hard up for kitchen cleanser, I sure don't want to forget to get her none!

RUTH Lena maybe the woman is just short on cleanser

MAMA (Not listening) Much baking powder as she done borrowed from me all these years, she could of done gone into the baking business!

(The bell sounds suddenly and sharply and all three are stunned serious and silent mid-speech. In spite of all the other conversations and distractions of the morning, this is what they have been waiting for, even TRAVIS, who looks helplessly from his mother to his grandmother. RUTH is the first to come to life again)

RUTH (Excited) Oh, Miss Lena!
MAMA (Collecting herself) Well ... I don't know what we all so excited about 'round here for. We known it was coming for months.

RUTH That's a whole lot different from having it come and being able to hold it in your hands ... a piece of paper worth ten thousand dollars ... (TRAVIS bursts back into the room. He holds the envelope high above his head, like a little dancer, his face is radiant and he is breathless. He moves to his grandmother with sudden slow ceremony and puts the envelope into her hands. She accepts it, and then merely holds it and looks at it) Come on! Open it ... Lord have mercy, I wish Walter Lee was here!

TRAVIS Open it, Grandmama!

68 A RAISIN IN THE SUN

MAMA (Staring at it) Now you all be quiet. It's just a check.

RUTH Open it ...

MAMA (Still staring at it) Now don't act silly ... We ain't never been no people to act silly 'bout no money

RUTH (Swiftly) We ain't never had none before OPEN IT!

(MAMA finally makes a good strong tear and pulls out the thin blue slice of paper and inspects it closely. The boy and his mother study it raptly over MAMA'S shoulders)

MAMA Travis! (She is counting off with doubt) Is that the right number of zeros.

TRAVIS Yes'm... ten thousand dollars. Gaalee, Grandmama, you rich.

MAMA (She holds the check away from her, still looking at it. Slowly her face sobers into a mask of unhappiness) Ten thousand dollars. (She hands it to RUTH) Put it away somewhere, Ruth. (She does not look at RUTH; her eyes seem to be seeing something somewhere very far off) Ten thousand dollars they give you. Ten thousand dollars, TRAVIS (To his mother, sincerely) What's the matter with Grandmama don't she want to be rich?

RUTH (Distractedly) You go on out and play now, baby. (TRAVIS exits. MAMA starts wiping dishes absent-ly, humming intently to herself. RUTH turns to her, with kind exasperation) You've gone and got yourself upset.

MAMA (Not looking at her) I spec if it wasn't for you all ... I would just put that money away or give it to the church or something.

A RAISIN IN THE SUN 69

RUTH Now what kind of talk is that. Mr. Younger would just be plain mad if he could hear you talking foolish like that.

MAMA (Stopping and staring off) Yes ... he sure would. (Sighing) We got enough to do with that money, all right. (She halts then, and turns and looks at her daughter-in-law hard; RUTH avoids her eyes and MAMA wipes her hands with finality and starts to speak firmly to RUTH) Where did you go today, girl?

RUTH To the doctor.

MAMA (Impatiently) Now, Ruth ... you know better than that. Old Doctor Jones is strange enough in his way but there ain't nothing 'bout him make somebody slip and call him "she" like you done this morning.

RUTH Well, that's what happened my tongue slipped. MAMA You went to see that woman, didn't you?

RUTH (Defensively, giving herself away) What woman you talking about?

MAMA (Angrily) That woman who (WALTER enters in great excitement)

WALTER Did it come?

MAMA (Quietly) Can't you give people a Christian greeting before you start asking about money?

WALTER (To RUTH) Did it come? (RUTH unfolds the check and lays it quietly before him, watching him intently with thoughts of her own. WALTER sits down and grasps it close and counts off the zeros) Ten thousand dollars (He turns suddenly, frantically to his mother and draws some papers out of his breast pocket) Mama look. Old Willy Harris put everything on paper

70 A RAISIN IN THE SUN

MAMA Son I think you ought to talk to your wife . . . I'll go on out and leave you alone if you want

WALTER I can talk to her later Mama, look

MAMA Son

WALTER WILL SOMEBODY PLEASE LISTEN TO ME TODAY!

MAMA (Quietly) I don't 'low no yellin' in this house, Walter Lee, and you know it (WALTER stares at them in frustration and starts to speak several times) And there ain't going to be no investing in no liquor stores.

WALTER But, Mama, you ain't even looked at it. MAMA I don't aim to have to speak on that again. (A long pause)
WALTER You ain't looked at it and you don't aim to have to speak on that again? You ain't even looked at it and you have decided (Crumpling his papers) Well, you tell that to my boy tonight when you put him to sleep on the living-room couch . . . (Turning to MAMA and speaking directly to her) Yeah and tell it to my wife, Mama, tomorrow when she has to go out of here to look after somebody else's kids. And tell it to me, Mama, every time we need a new pair of curtains and I have to watch you go out and work in somebody's kitchen. Yeah, you tell me then! (WALTER starts out)

RUTH Where you going?

WALTER I'm going out!

RUTH Where?

WALTER Just out of this house somewhere

RUTH (Getting her coat) I'll come too.

A RAISIN IN THE SUN 71

WALTER I don't want you to come!
RUTH I got something to talk to you about, Walter.
WALTER That's too bad.

MAMA (Still quietly) Walter Lee (She waits and he finally turns and looks at her) Sit down.

WALTER I'm a grown man, Mama.

MAMA Ain't nobody said you wasn't grown. But you still in my house and my presence. And as long as you are you'll talk to your wife civil. Now sit down.

RUTH (Suddenly) Oh, let him go on out and drink him-self to death! He makes me sick to my st-omach! (She flings her coat against him and exits to bedroom)

WALTER (Violently flinging the coat after her) And you turn mine too, baby! (The door slams behind her) That was my biggest mistake

WALTER Matter with me? Ain't nothing the matter with me!

MAMA (Still quietly) Walter, what is the matter with you?

WALTER Matter with me? Ain't nothing the matter with me!

MAMA Yes there is. Something eating you up like a crazy man. Something more than me not giving you this money. The past few years I been watching it happen to you. You get all nervous acting and kind of wild in the eyes (WALTER jumps up impatiently at her words) I said sit there now, I'm talking to you!

WALTER Mama I don't need no nagging at me today.

MAMA Seem like you getting to a place where you always tied up in some kind of knot about something. But if anybody ask you 'bout it you just yell at 'em and bust out the house and go out and drink some-where. Walter Lee, people can't live with that. Ruth's a good, patient girl in her way but you getting to be too much. Boy, don't make the mistake of driving that girl away from you.

WALTER Why what she do for me?
MAMA She loves you.

WALTER Mama I'm going out. I want to go off some-where and be by myself for a while.

MAMA I'm sorry 'bout your liquor store, son. It just wasn't the thing for us to do. That's what I want to tell you about

WALTER I got to go out, Mama (He rises)

MAMA It's dangerous, son.
WALTER What's dangerous?

MAMA When a man goes outside his home to look for peace.

WALTER (Beseechingly) Then why can't there never be no peace in this house then?

MAMA You done found it in some other house?

WALTER No there ain't no woman! Why do women always think there's a woman somewhere when a man gets restless. (Picks up the check) Do you know what this money means to me? Do you know what this money can do for us? (Puts it back) Mama Mama I want so many things

MAMA Yes, son

WALTER I want so many things that they are driving me kind of crazy . . . Mama look at me.

MAMA I'm looking at you. You 1 a good-looking boy. You got a job, a nice wife, a fine boy and

A RAISIN IN THE SUN 73

WALTER A job. (Looks at her) Mama, a job? I open and close car doors all day long. I drive a man around in his limousine and I say, ”Yes, sir; no, sir; very good, sir; shall I take the Drive, sir?” Mama, that ain't no kind of job . . . that ain't nothing at all. (Very quietly) Mama, I don't know if I can make you understand.

MAMA Understand what, baby?
WALTER (Quietly) Sometimes it's like I can see the future stretched out in front of me just plain as day. The future, Mama. Hanging over there at the edge of my days. Just waiting for me in a big, looming blank space full of nothing. Just waiting for me. But it don't have to be. (Pause. Kneeling beside her chair) Mama sometimes when I'm downtown and I pass them cool, quiet-looking restaurants where them white boys are sitting back and talking 'bout things . . . sitting there turning deals worth millions of dollars . . . sometimes I see guys don't look much older than me

MAMA Son how come you talk so much *bout money?

WALTER (With immense passion) Because it is life, Mama!

MAMA (Quietly) Oh (Very quietly) So now it's life. Money is life. Once upon a time freedom used to be life now it's money. I guess the world really do change . . .

WALTER No it was always money, Mama. We just didn't know about it.

MAMA No ... something has changed. (She looks at him) You something new, boy. In my time we was worried about not being lynched and getting to the North if we could and how to stay alive and still have a pinch of dignity too . . . Now here come you and

74 A RAISIN IN THE SUN

Beneath talking 'bout things we ain't never even thought about hardly, me and your daddy. You ain't satisfied or proud of nothing we done. I mean that you had a home; that we kept you out of trouble till you was grown; that you don't have to ride to work on the back of nobody's streetcar You my children but how different we done become.

WALTER (A long beat. He pats her hand and gets up) You just don't understand, Mama, you just don't understand.

MAMA Son do you know your wife is expecting another baby? (WALTER stands, stunned, and absorbs what his mother has said) That's what she wanted to talk to you about. (WALTER sinks down into a chair) This ain't for me to be telling but you ought to know. (She waits) I think Ruth is thinking 'bout getting rid of that child.

WALTER (Slowly understanding) No no Ruth wouldn't do that.

MAMA When the world gets ugly enough a woman will do anything for her family. The part thafs already living.

WALTER You don't know Ruth, Mama, if you think she would do that,

RUTH (Opens the bedroom door and stands there a little limp)

RUTH (Beaten) Yes I would too, Walter. (Pause) I gave her a five-dollar down payment.

(The there is total silence as the man stares at his wife and the mother stares at her son)

MAMA (Presently) Well (Tightly) Well son, I'm waiting to hear you say something . . . (She waits) I'm waiting to hear how you be your father's son. Be the man he was . . . (Pause. The silence shouts) Your wife say she going to destroy your child. And I'm waiting to hear you talk like him and say we a people who give children life, not who destroys them (She rises) I'm waiting to see you stand up and look like your daddy and say we done give up one baby to poverty and that we ain't going to give up nary another one . . . I'm waiting.

WALTER Ruth (He can say nothing)

MAMA If you a son of mine, tell her! (WALTER picks up his keys and his coat and walks out. She continues, bitterly) You . . . you are a disgrace to your father's memory. Somebody get me my hat!

Curtain

ACT II
SCENE ONE

Time: Later the same day.

At rise: RUTH is ironing again. She has the radio going. Presently BENEATHAS bedroom door opens and RUTHS mouth falls and she puts down the iron in fascination.

RUTH What have we got on tonight!

BENEATHA (Emerging grandly from the doorway so that we can see her thoroughly robed in the costume Asagai brought) You are looking at what a well-dressed Nigerian woman wears (She parades for RUTH, her hair completely hidden by the headdress; she is coquettishly fanning herself with an ornate oriental fan, mistakenly more like Butterfly than any Nigerian that ever was) Isn't it beautiful? (She promenades to the radio and, with an arrogant flourish, turns off the good loud blues that is playing) Enough of this assimilator junk! (RUTH follows her with her eyes as she goes to the phonograph and puts on a record and turns and waits ceremoniously for the music to come up. Then, with a shout ) OCOMOGOSIAY!

(RUTH jumps. The music comes up, a lovely Nigerian melody. BENEATHA listens, enraptured, her eyes jar away "back to the past." She begins to dance. RUTH is dumfounded.

RUTH What kind of dance is that?

BENEATHA A folk dance.

RUTH (Pearl Bailey) What kind of folks do that, honey?

BENEATHA It's from Nigeria. It's a dance of welcome.

RUTH Who you welcoming?

BENEATHA The men back to the village.

RUTH Where they been?

BENEATHA How should I know out hunting or some-thing. Anyway, they are coming back now . . .

RUTH Well, that's good.

BENEATHA (With the record)

Alundi, alundi
Alundialunya
Jop pu a jeepua
Ang gu sooooooooon

Aiyaiyae . . .

Ayehaye alundi

(WALTER comes in during this performance; he has obviously been drinking. He leans against the door heavily and watches his sister, at "first -with distaste. Then his eyes look off "back to the past' as he lifts both his fists to the roof, screaming)

WALTER YEAH ... AND ETHIOPIA STRETCH FORTH HER HANDS AGAIN! . . .

RUTH (Drily, looking at him) Yes and Africa sure is claiming her own tonight. (She gives them both up and starts ironing again)

78 A RAISIN IN THE SUN

WALTER (All in a drunken, dramatic shout) Shut up! . . . I'm digging them drums . . . them drums move me! . . . (He makes his weaving way to his wife's face and leans close to her) In my heart of hearts (He thumps his chest) I am much warrior!

RUTH (Without even looking up) In your heart of hearts you are much drunkard.

WALTER (Coming away from her and starting to wander around the room, shouting) Me and Jomo . . . (India, in his sister's face. She has stopped dancing to watch him in this unknown mood) That's my man, Kenyatta. (Shouting and thumping his chest) FLAM-ING SPEAR! HOT DAMN! (He is suddenly in pos-session of an imaginary spear and actively spearing enemies all over the room) OCOMOSIAY . . .

BENEATHA (To encourage WALTER, thoroughly caught up with this side of him ) OCOMOSIAY, FLAMING SPEAR!

WALTER THE LION IS WAKING . . . OWIMOWEH!

(He pulls his shirt open and leaps up on the table and gestures with his spear)

BENEATHA OWIMOWEH!

WALTER (On the table, very far gone, his eyes pure glass sheets. He sees what we cannot, that he is a leader of his people, a great chief, a descendant of Chaka, and that the hour to march has come) Listen, my black brothers

BENEATHA OCOMOSIAY!

WALTER Do you hear the waters rushing against the shores of the coastlands

BENEATHA OCOMOSIAY!

A RAISIN IN THE SUN

WALTER Do you hear the screeching of the cocks in yonder hills beyond where the chiefs meet in council for the coming of the mighty war

BENEATHA OCOMOSIAY!

(And now the lighting shifts subtly to suggest the world of WALTER'S imagination, and the mood shifts from pure comedy. It is the inner WALTER speaking: the Southside chauffeur has assumed an unexpected majesty )

WALTER Do you hear the beating of the wings of the birds flying low over the mountains and the low places of our land

BENEATHA OCOMOSIAY!

WALTER Do you hear the singing of the women, sing-ing the war songs of our fathers to the babies in the great houses? Singing the sweet war songs! (The door-bell rings) OH, DO YOU HEAR, MY BLACK BROTHERS!

BENEATHA (Completely gone) We hear you, Flaming Spear

(RUTH shuts off the phonograph and opens the door. GEORGE MURCHISON enters)
WALTER Telling us to prepare for the GREATNESS OF THE TIME! (Lights back to normal. He turns and sees GEORGE) Black Brother!

(He extends his hand for the fraternal clasp)

GEORGE Black Brother, hell!

RUTH (Having had enough, and embarrassed for the family) Beneatha, you got company what's the matter with you? Walter Lee Younger, get down off that table and stop acting like a fool...

80 A RAISIN IN THE SUN

(WALTER comes down off the table suddenly and makes a quick exit to the bathroom)

RUTH He's had a little to drink... I don't know what her excuse is.

GEORGE (To BENEATHA) Look honey, we're going to the theatre we're not going to be in it... so go change, huh?

(BENEATHA looks at him and slowly, ceremoniously, lifts her hands and pulls off the headdress. Her hair is close-cropped and unstraightened. GEORGE freezes mid-sentence and RUTH'S eyes all but fall out of her head)

GEORGE What in the name of RUTH (Touching BENEATHA'S hear) Girl, you done lost your natural mind!? Look at your head!

GEORGE What have you done to your head I mean your hair!

BENEATHA Nothing except cut it off.

RUTH Now that's the truth it's what ain't been done to it! You expect this boy to go out with you with your head all nappy like that?

BENEATHA (Looking at GEORGE) That's up to George. If he's ashamed of his heritage

GEORGE Oh, don't be so proud of yourself, Bennie just because you look eccentric.

BENEATHA How can something that's natural be eccentric?

GEORGE That's what being eccentric means being natural. Get dressed.

BENEATHA I don't like that, George.

A RAISIN IN THE SUN 81

RUTH Why must you and your brother make an argument out of everything people say?

BENEATHA Because I hate assimilationist Negroes!

RUTH Will somebody please tell me what assimila-whoever means!

GEORGE Oh, it's just a college girl's way of calling people Uncle Toms but that isn't what it means at all.

RUTH Well, what does it mean?

BENEATHA (Cutting GEORGE off and staring at him as she replies to RUTH) It means someone who is willing to give up his own culture and submerge himself completely in the dominant, and in this case oppressive culture!

GEORGE Oh, dear, dear, dear! Here we go! A lecture on the African past! On our Great West African Heritage! In one second we will hear all about the great Ashanti empires; the great Songhay civilizations; and the great sculpture of B6nin and then some poetry in the Bantu and the whole monologue will end with the word heritage! (Nastily') Let's face it, baby, your heritage is nothing but a bunch of raggedy-assed spirituals and some grass huts!

BENEATHA GRASS HUTS! (RUTH crosses to her and forcibly pushes her toward the bedroom) See there... you are standing there in your splendid ignorance talking about people who were the first to smelt iron on the face of the earth! (RUTH is pushing her through the door) The Ashanti were performing surgical operations when the English (RUTH pulls the door to, with BENEATHA on the other side, and smiles graciously at GEORGE. BENEATHA opens the door and shouts the end of the sentence defiantly at GEORGE) were still tattooing themselves with blue dragons! (She goes back inside)

82 A RAISIN IN THE SUN

RUTH Have a seat, George (They both sit. RUTH folds her hands rather primly on her lap, determined to demonstrate the civilization of the family) Warm, ain't it? I mean for September. (Pause) Just like they always say about Chicago weather: If it's too hot or cold for you, just wait a minute and it'll change. (She smiles happily at this cliché of cliches) Everybody say it's got to do with them bombs and things they keep setting off. (Pause) Would you like a nice cold beer?

GEORGE No, thank you. I don't care for beer. (He looks at his watch) I hope she hurries up.

RUTH What time is the show?

GEORGE It's an eight-thirty curtain. That's just Chicago, though. In New York standard curtain time is eight forty.
(He is rather proud of this knowledge)

RUTH (Properly appreciating it) You get to New York a lot?

GEORGE (Offhand) Few times a year.

RUTH Oh that’s nice. I’ve never been to New York.

(WALTER enters. We feel he has relieved himself, but the edge of unreality is still with him)

WALTER New York ain’t got nothing Chicago ain’t. Just a bunch of hustling people all squeezing up together being "Eastern."

(He turns his face into a screw of displeasure)

GEORGE Oh you’ve been?

WALTER Plent y of times.

RUTH (Shocked at the lie) Walter Lee Younger!

WALTER (Staring her down) Plenty! (Pause) What we got to drink in this house? Why don’t you offer this man some refreshment. (To GEORGE) They don’t know how to entertain people in this house, man.

GEORGE Thank you I don’t really care for anything.

WALTER (Feeling his head; sobriety coming) Where’s Mama?

RUTH She ain’t come back yet.

WALTER (Looking MURCHISON over from head to toe, scrutinizing his carefully casual tweed sports jacket over cashmere V-neck sweater over soft eyelet shirt and tie, and soft slacks, finished off with white buckskin shoes) Why all you college boys wear them faggoty-looking white shoes?

RUTH She ain’t come back yet.

WALTER (Looking MURCHISON over from head to toe, scrutinizing his carefully casual tweed sports jacket over cashmere V-neck sweater over soft eyelet shirt and tie, and soft slacks, finished off with white buckskin shoes) Why all you college boys wear them faggoty-looking white shoes?

RUTH Walter Lee!

(GEORGE MURCHISON ignores the remark)

WALTER (To RUTH) Well, they look crazy as hell white shoes, cold as it is.

RUTH (Crushed) You have to excuse him

WALTER No he don’t! Excuse me for what? What you always excusing me for? I’ll excuse myself when I needs to be excused! (A pause) They look as funny as them black knee socks Beneatha wears out of here all the time.

RUTH It’s the college style, Walter.

WALTER Style, hell. She looks like she got burnt legs or something!

RUTH Oh, Walter

WALTER (An irritable mimic) Oh, Walter! Oh, Walter! (To MURCHISON) How’s your old man making out? I understand you all going to buy that big hotel on the Drive? (He finds a beer in the refrigerator, wanders over to MURCHISON, sipping and wiping his lips with the back of his hand, and straddling a chair backwards to talk to the other man) Shrewd move. Your old man is all right, man. (Tapping his head and half winking for emphasis) I mean he knows how to operate. I mean he thinks big, you know what I mean, I mean for a home, you know? But I think he’s kind of running out of ideas now. I’d like to talk to him. Listen, man, I got some plans that could turn this city upside down. I mean think like he does. Big. Invest big, gamble big, hell, lose big if you have to, you know what I mean. It’s hard to find a man on this whole Southside who understands my kind of thinking you dig? (He scrutinizes MURCHISON again, drinks his beer, squints his eyes and leans in close, confidential, man to man) Me and you ought to sit down and talk sometimes, man. Man, I got me some ideas . . .

84 A RAISIN IN THE SUN

MURCHISON (With boredom) Yeah sometimes we’ll have to do that, Walter.

WALTER (Understanding the indifference, and offended) Yeah well, when you get the time, man. I know you a busy little boy.

RUTH Walter, please

WALTER (Bitterly, hurt) I know ain’t nothing in this world as busy as you colored college boys with your fraternity pins and white shoes . . .

RUTH (Covering her face with humiliation) Oh, Walter Lee

WALTER I see you all all the time with the books tucked under your arms going to your (British A a mimic) "clahsses." And for what! What the hell you learning over there? Filling up your heads (Counting off on his fingers) with the sociology and the psychology but they teaching you how to be a man?

A RAISIN IN THE SUN 85

How to take over and run the world? They teaching you how to run a rubber plantation or a steel mill? Naw just to talk proper and read books and wear them faggoty-looking white shoes . . .

GEORGE (Looking at him with distaste, a little above it all) You’re all wacked up with bitterness, man.
WALTER (Intently, almost quietly, between the teeth, glaring at the boy) And you ain't you bitter, man? Ain't you just about had it yet? Don't you see no stars gleaming that you can't reach out and grab? You happy? You contented son-of-a-bitch you happy? You got it made? Bitter? Man, I'm a volcano. Bitter? Here I am a giant surrounded by ants! Ants who can't even understand what it is the giant is talking about.

RUTH (Passionately and suddenly) Oh, Walter ain't you with nobody!

WALTER (Violently) No! 'Cause ain't nobody with me! Not even my own mother!

RUTH Walter, that's a terrible thing to say!

(BENEATHA enters, dressed for the evening in a cocktail dress and earrings, hair natural)

GEORGE Well hey (Crosses to BENEATHA; thoughtful, with emphasis, since this is a reversal) You look great!

WALTER (Seeing his sister's hair for the first time) What's the matter with your head?

BENEATHA (Tired of the jokes now) I cut it off, Brother.

WALTER (Coming close to inspect it and walking around her) Well, Til be damned. So that's what they mean by the African bush . . .

BENEATHA Ha ha. Let's go, George.

86 A RAISIN IN THE SUN

GEORGE (Looking at her} You know something? I like it. It's sharp. I mean it really is. (Helps her into her wrap)

RUTH Yes I think so, too. (She goes to the mirror and starts to clutch at her hair)

WALTER Oh no! You leave yours alone, baby. You might turn out to have a pin-shaped head or something!

BENEATHA See you all later.

RUTH Have a nice time.

GEORGE Thanks. Good night. (Half out the door, he re-opens it. To WALTER) Good night, Prometheus! (BENEATHA and GEORGE exit)

WALTER (To RUTH) Who is Prometheus?

RUTH I don't know. Don't worry about it.

WALTER (In fury, pointing after GEORGE) See there they get to a point where they can't insult you man to man they got to go talk about something ain't nobody never heard of!

RUTH How do you know it was an insult? (To humor him) Maybe Prometheus is a nice fellow.

WALTER Prometheus! I bet there ain't even no such thing! I bet that simple-minded clown

RUTH Walter

(She stops what she i’ya doing and looks at him)

WALTER (Yelling) Don't start!

RUTH Start what?

WALTER Your nagging! Where was I? Who was I with? How much money did I spend?

RUTH (Plaintively) Walter Lee why don't we just try to talk about it ...

A RAISIN IN THE SUN 87

WALTER (Not listening) I been out talking with people who understand me. People who care about the things I got on my mind.

RUTH (Wearily) I guess that means people like Willy Harris.

WALTER Yes, people like Willy Harris.

RUTH (With a sudden flash of impatience) Why don't you all just hurry up and go into the banking business and stop talking about it!

WALTER Why? You want to know why? ’Cause we all tied up in a race of people that don't know how to do nothing but moan, pray and have babies!

(The line is too bitter even for him and he looks at her and sits down)

RUTH Oh, Walter . . . (Softly) Honey, why can't you stop fighting me?

WALTER (Without thinking) Who's fighting you? Who even cares about you?

(This line begins the retardation of his mood)

RUTH Well (She waits a long time, and then with resignation starts to put away her things) I guess maybe I better go on and do what I started ... I guess I just didn't realize how bad things was with us ... I guess I just didn't really realize (She starts out to the bedroom and stops) You want some hot milk?

WALTER Hot milk?

RUTH Yes hot milk*
WALTER Why hot milk?

88 A RAISIN IN THE SUN

RUTH 'Cause after all that liquor you come home with you ought to have something hot in your stomach.

WALTER I don't want no milk.
RUTH You want some coffee then?

WALTER No, I don't want no coffee. I don't want nothing hot to drink. (Almost plaintively) Why you always trying to give me something to eat?

RUTH (Standing and looking at him helplessly) What else can I give you, Walter Lee Younger?

(She stands and looks at him and presently turns to go out again. He lifts his head and watches her going away from him in a new mood which began to emerge when he asked her "Who cares about your)

WALTER It's been rough, ain't it, baby? (She hears and stops but does not turn around and he continues to her back) I guess between two people there ain't never as much understood as folks generally thinks there is. I mean like between me and you (She turns to face him) How we gets to the place where we scared to talk softness to each other. (He waits, thinking hard himself) Why you think it got to be like that? (He is thoughtful, almost as a child would be) Ruth, what is it gets into people ought to be close?

RUTH I don't know, honey. I think about it a lot.

WALTER On account of you and me, you mean? The way things are with us. The way something done come down between us.

RUTH There ain't so much between us, Walter . . . Not when you come to me and try to talk to me. Try to be with me ... a little even.

A RAISIN IN THE SUN 89

WALTER (Total honesty) Sometimes . . . sometimes . . . I don't even know how to try.

RUTH Walter
WALTER Yes?

RUTH (Coming to him, gently and with misgiving, but coming to him) Honey . . . life don't have to be like this. I mean sometimes people can do things so that things are better . . . You remember how we used to talk when Travis was born . . . about the way we were going to live . . . the kind of house . . . (She is stroking his head) Well, it's all starting to slip away from us ...

(He turns her to him and they look at each other and kiss, tenderly and hungrily. The door opens and MAMA enters WALTER breaks away and jumps up. A beat)

WALTER Mama, where have you been?

MAMA My them steps is longer than they used to be. Whew! (She sits down and ignores him) How you feeling this evening, Ruth?

(RUTH shrugs, disturbed at having been interrupted and watching her husband knowingly)

WALTER Mama, where have you been all day?

MAMA (Still ignoring him and leaning on the table and changing to more comfortable shoes) Where's Travis?

RUTH I let him go out earlier and he ain't come back yet. Boy, is he going to get it!

WALTER Mama!

MAMA (As if she has heard him for the first time) Yes, son?

90 A RAISIN IN THE SUN

WALTER Where did you go this afternoon?

MAMA I went downtown to tend to some business that I had to tend to.

WALTER What kind of business?

MAMA You know better than to question me like a child, Brother.

WALTER (Rising and bending over the table) Where were you, Mama? (Bringing his fists down and shouting) Mama, you didn't go do something with that insurance money, something crazy?

(The front door opens slowly, interrupting him, and TRAVIS peeks his head in, less than hopefully)

TRAVIS (To his mother) Mama, I

RUTH "Mama I" nothing! You're going to get it, boy! Get on in that bedroom and get yourself ready!

TRAVIS But I

MAMA Why don't you all never let the child explain hiself.

RUTH Keep out of it now, Lena.
(MAMA clamps her lips together, and RUTH advances toward her son menacingly)

RUTH A thousand times I have told you not to go off like that MAMA (Holding out her arms to her grandson) Well at least let me tell him something. I want him to be the first one to hear . . . Come here, Travis. (The boy obeys, gladly) Travis (She takes him by the shoulder and looks into his face) you know that money we got in the mail this morning?

TRAVIS Yes'm

MAMA Well what you think your grandmama gone and done with that money?

TRAVIS I don't know, Grandmama.

MAMA (Putting her finger on his nose for emphasis) She went out and she bought you a house! (The explosion comes from WALTER at the end of the revelation and he jumps up and turns away from all of them in a fury. MAMA continues, to TRAVIS) You glad about the house? It's going to be yours when you get to be a man.

TRAVIS Yeah I always wanted to live in a house.

MAMA All right, gimme some sugar then (TRAVIS puts his arms around her as she watches her son over the boy’s shoulder. Then, to TRAVIS, after the embrace) Now when you say your prayers tonight, you thank God and your grandfather 'cause it was him who give you the house in his way.

RUTH (Taking the boy -from MAMA and pushing him toward the bedroom) Now you get out of here and get ready for your beating.

TRAVIS Aw, Mama

RUTH Get on in there (Closing the door behind him and turning radiantly to her mother-in-law) So you went and did it!.

MAMA (Quietly, looking at her son with pain) Yes, I did.

RUTH (Raising both arms classically) PRAISE GOD! (Looks at WALTER a moment, -who says nothing. She crosses rapidly to her husband) Please, honey let me be glad . . . you be glad too. (She has laid her hands on his shoulders, but he shakes himself free of her roughly, without turning to face her) Oh, Walter . . .

RUTH (Looking back at MAMA) A thousand times I have told you not to go off like that MAMA (Smiling at her) First of the month.

RUTH (Throwing back her head with jubilation) Praise God!

MAMA (Tentatively, still looking at her son's back turned against her and RUTH) It's it's a nice house too ... (She cannot help speaking directly to him. An imploring quality in her voice, her manner, makes her almost like a girl now) Three bedrooms nice big one for you and Ruth . . . Me and Beneatha still have to share our room, but Travis have one of his own and (With difficulty) I figure if the new baby is a boy, we could get one of them double-decker outfits . . . And there's a yard with a little patch of dirt where I could maybe get to grow me a few flowers . . . And a nice big basement . . .

RUTH Walter honey, be glad

MAMA (Still to his back, fingering things on the table) 'Course I don't want to make it sound fancier than it is ... It's just a plain little old house but it's made good and solid and it will be ours. Walter Lee it makes a difference in a man when he can walk on floors that belong to him . . .

RUTH Where is it?

MAMA (Frightened at this telling) Well well it's out there in Clybourne Park

(RUTH'S radiance jades abruptly, and WALTER finally turns slowly to face his mother with incredulity and hostility)

A RAISIN IN THE SUN 91

MAMA (Matter-of-factly) Four o six Clybourne Street, Clybourne Park.

(RUTH'S radiance jades abruptly, and WALTER finally turns slowly to face his mother with incredulity and hostility)

RUTH Where?

MAMA (Matter-of-factly) Four o six Clybourne Street, Clybourne Park.

RUTH Clybourne Park? Mama, there ain't no colored people living in Clybourne Park.

MAMA (Almost idiotically) Well, I guess there's going to be some now.

WALTER (Bitterly) So that's the peace and comfort you went out and bought for us today!
MAMA (Raising her eyes to meet his finally) Son I just tried to find the nicest place for the least amount of money for my family.

RUTH (Trying to recover from the shock) Well well 'course I ain't one never been 'fraid of no crackers, mind you but well, wasn't there no other houses nowhere?

MAMA Them houses they put up for colored in them areas way out all seem to cost twice as much as other houses. I did the best I could.

RUTH (Struck senseless with the news, in its various degrees of goodness and trouble, she sits a moment, her fists propping her chin in thought, and then she starts to rise, bringing her fists down with vigor, the radiance spreading from cheek to cheek again) Well well! All I can say is if this is my time in life MY TIME to say good-bye (And she builds with momentum as she starts to circle the room with an exuberant, almost tearfully happy release) to these Goddamned cracking walls! (She pounds the walls) and these marching roaches! (She wipes at an imaginary army of marching roaches) and this cramped little closet which ain't now or never was no kitchen! . . . then I say it loud and good, HALLELUJAH! AND

94 A RAISIN IN THE SUN

GOOD-BYE MISERY ... I DON'T NEVER WANT TO SEE YOUR UGLY FACE AGAIN! (She laughs joyously, having practically destroyed the apartment, and flings her arms up and lets them come down happily, slowly, reflectively, over her abdomen, aware for the first time perhaps that the life therein pulses with happiness and not despair) Lena?

MAMA (Moved, watching her happiness) Yes, honey?

RUTH (Looking off) Is there is there a whole lot of sunlight?

MAMA (Understanding) Yes, child, there's a whole lot of sunlight.

(Long pause)

RUTH (Collecting herself and going to the door of the room TRAVIS is in) Well I guess I better see 'bout Travis. (To MAMA) Lord, I sure don't feel like whipping nobody today! (She exits)

MAMA (The mother and son are left alone now and the mother waits a long time, considering deeply, before she speaks) Son you you understand what I done, don't you? (WALTER is silent and sullen) I just seen my family falling apart today . . . just falling to pieces in front of my eyes . . . We couldn't of gone on like we was today. We was going backwards 'stead of forwards talking 'bout killing babies and wishing each other was dead . . . When it gets like that in life you just got to do something different, push on out and do something bigger . . . (She waits) I wish you say something, son . . . I wish you'd say how deep inside you you think I done the right thing

WALTER (Crossing slowly to his bedroom door and finally turning there and speaking measuredly) What you need me to say you done right for? You the head of this family. You run our lives like you want to. It was your money and you did what you wanted with it. So what you need for me to say it was all right for? (Bit-terly, to hurt her as deeply as he knows is possible) So you butchered up a dream of mine you who always talking 'bout your children's dreams . . .

MAMA Walter Lee

(He just closes the door behind him. MAMA sits alone, thinking heavily)

Curtain

SCENE Two

Time: Friday night. A few weeks later.

At rise: Packing crates mark the intention of the family to move. BENEATHA and GEORGE come in, presumably from an evening out again.

GEORGE O.K. . . . O.K., whatever you say ... (They both sit on the couch. He tries to kiss her. She moves away) Look, we've had a nice evening; let's not spoil it, huh? . . .

(He again turns her head and tries to nuzzle in and she turns away from him, not with distaste but with momentary lack of interest; in a mood to pursue what they were talking about)

BENEATHA I'm trying to talk to you.

GEORGE We always talk.

BENEATHA Yes and I love to talk.

GEORGE (Exasperated; rising) I know it and I don't mind it sometimes ... I want you to cut it out, see The moody stuff, I mean. I don't like it. You're a nice-looking girl ... all over. That's all you need, honey, forget the atmosphere. Guys aren't going to go for the atmosphere they're going to go for what they see. Be glad for that. Drop the Garbo routine. It doesn't go with you. As for myself, I want a nice (Groping) simple (Thoughtfully) sophisticated girl . . . not a poet O.K.?
(He starts to kiss her, she rebuffs him again and he jumps up)

BENEATHA Why are you angry, George?

GEORGE Because this is stupid! I don't go out with you to discuss the nature of "quiet desperation" or to hear all about your thoughts because the world will go on thinking what it thinks regardless.

BENEATHA Then why read books? Why go to school?

GEORGE (With artificial patience, counting on his fingers) It's simple. You read books to learn facts to get grades to pass the course to get a degree. That's all it has nothing to do with thoughts.

(A long pause)

BENEATHA I see. (He starts to sit) Good night, George. (GEORGE looks at her a little oddly, and starts to exit. He meets MAMA coming in)

GEORGE Oh hello, Mrs. Younger.

MAMA Hello, George, how you feeling?

GEORGE Fine fine, how are you?

MAMA Oh, a little tired. You know them steps can get you after a day's work. You all have a nice time tonight?

GEORGE Yes a fine time. A fine time.

MAMA Well, good night.

GEORGE Good night. (He exits. MAMA closes the door behind her) Hello, honey. What you sitting like that for?

BENEATHA I'm just sitting.

MAMA Didn't you have a nice time?

BENEATHA No.

MAMA No? What's the matter?

BENEATHA Mama, George is a fool honest. (She rises)

MAMA (Hustling around unloading the packages she has entered with. She stops) Is he, baby?

98 A RAISIN IN THE SUN

BENEATHA Makes up TRAVIS' bed as she talks

MAMA You sure?

BENEATHA Yes.

MAMA Well I guess you better not waste your time with no fools.

BENEATHA Mama

MAMA Yes, baby

BENEATHA Thank you.

MAMA For what?

BENEATHA For understanding me this time.

{She exits quickly and the mother stands, smiling a little, looking at the place -where BENEATHA just stood. RUTH enters)

RUTH Now don't you fool with any of this stuff, Lena MAMA Oh, I just thought I'd sort a few things out. Is Brother here?

RUTH Yes.

MAMA (With concern) Is he

RUTH (Reading her eyes) Yes.

(MAMA is silent and someone knocks on the door. MAMA and RUTH exchange 'weary and knowing glances and RUTH opens it to admit the neighbor, MRS. JOHNSON,* who is a rather squeaky wide-eyed lady of no particular age, with a newspaper under her arm)

MAMA (Changing her expression to acute delight and a ringing cheerful greeting) Oh hello there, Johnson.

JOHNSON (This is a woman who decided long ago to be enthusiastic about EVERYTHING in life and she is inclined to wave her wrist vigorously at the height of her exclamatory comments') Hello there, yourself! H'you this evening, Ruth?

RUTH (Not much of a deceptive type) Fine, Mis* Johnson, h'you?

JOHNSON Fine. (Reaching out quickly, playfully, and patting RUTH'S stomach”) Ain't you starting to poke out none yet! (She mugs with delight at the over-familiar remark and her eyes dart around looking at the crates and packing preparation; MAMA'S face is a cold sheet of endurance) Oh, ain't we getting ready round here, though! Yessir! Lookathere! I'm telling you the Youngers is really getting ready to "move on up a little higher!" Bless God!

MAMA (A little drily, doubting the total sincerity of the Blesser) Bless God.

JOHNSON He's good, ain't He?
MAMA Oh yes, He's good.

JOHNSON I mean sometimes He works in mysterious ways . . . but He works, don't He!
MAMA (The same) Yes, he does.

JOHNSON I'm just sooooo happy for y'all. And this here child (About RUTH) looks like she could just pop open with happiness, don't she. Where's all the rest of the family?

100 A RAISIN IN THE SUN

MAMA Bonnie's gone to bed

JOHNSON Ain't no . . . (The implication is pregnancy) sickness done hit you I hope . . . ?
MAMA No she just tired. She was out this evening.

JOHNSON (All is a coo, an emphatic coo) Aw ain't that lovely. She still going out with the little Murchison boy?

MAMA (Drily) Ummmm huh.

JOHNSON That's lovely. You sure got lovely children, Younger. Me and Isaiah talks all the time 'bout what fine children you was blessed with. We sure do.

MAMA Ruth, give Mis' Johnson a piece of sweet potato pie and some milk.

JOHNSON Oh honey, I can't stay hardly a minute I just dropped in to see if there was anything I could do. (Accepting the food easily) I guess y'all seen the news what's all over the colored paper this week . . .

MAMA No didn't get mine yet this week.

JOHNSON (Lifting her head and blinking with the spirit of catastrophe) You mean you ain't read 'bout them colored people that was bombed out their place out there?

(RUTH straightens with concern and takes the paper and reads it. JOHNSON notices her and feeds commentary)

JOHNSON Ain't it something how bad these here white folks is getting here in Chicago! Lord, getting so you think you right down in Mississippi! (With a tremendous and rather insincere sense of melodrama) 'Course I thinks it's wonderful how our folks keeps on pushing out. You hear some of these Negroes round here talking 'bout how they don't go where they ain't wanted and all that but not me, honey! (This is a lie) Wilhemienia

A RAISIN IN THE SUN 101

Othella Johnson goes anywhere, any time she feels like it! (With head movement for emphasis) Yes I do! Why if we left it up to these here crackers, the poor niggers wouldn't have nothing (She clasps her hand over her mouth) Oh, I always forgets you don't 'low that word in your house.

MAMA (Quietly, looking at her) No I don't 'low it.

JOHNSON (Vigorously again) Me neither! I was just telling Isaiah yesterday when he come using it in front of me I said, "Isaiah, it's just like Mis' Younger says all the time ."

MAMA Don't you want some more pie?

JOHNSON No no thank you; this was lovely. I got to get on over home and have my midnight coffee. I hear some people say it don't let them sleep but I finds I can't close my eyes rigjit lessen I done had that laaaaast cup of coffee . . . (She waits. A beat. Undaunted) My Good-night coffee, I calls it!

MAMA (With much eye-rolling and communication between herself and RUTH) Ruth, why don't you give Mis' Johnson some coffee.

(RUTH gives MAMA an unpleasant look for her kindness)

JOHNSON (Accepting the coffee) Where's Brother tonight?

MAMA He's lying down.

JOHNSON MMmmmmm, he sure gets his beauty rest, don't he? Good-looking man. Sure is a good-looking man! (Reaching out to pat RUTH'S stomach again) I guess that's how come we keep on having babies around here. (She winks at MAMA) One thing 'bout Brother, he always know how to have a good time. And sooooo ambitious! I bet it was his idea y'all moving out to

102 A RAISIN IN THE SUN

Clybourne Park. Lord I bet this time next month y'alFs names will have been in the papers plenty (Holding up her hands to mark off each word of the headline she can see in front of her) "NEGROES IN-VADE CLYBOURNE PARK BOMBED!"

MAMA (She and RUTH look at the woman in amazement)
We ain't exactly moving out there to get bombed.

JOHNSON Oh, honey you know I'm praying to God every day that don't nothing like that happen! But you have to think of life like it is and these here Chicago peckerwoods is some baaaad peckerwoods.

MAMA (Warily) We done thought about all that Mis' Johnson.

(BENEATHA comes out of the bedroom in her robe and passes through to the bathroom. MRS. JOHNSON turns)

JOHNSON Hello there, Bennie!

BENEATHA (Crisply) Hello, Mrs. Johnson.

JOHNSON How is school?

BENEATHA (Crisply) Fine, thank you. (She goes out.)

JOHNSON (Insulted) Getting so she don't have much to say to nobody.

MAMA The child was on her way to the bathroom.

JOHNSON I know but sometimes she act like ain't got time to pass the time of day with nobody ain't been to college. Oh I ain't criticizing her none. It's just you know how some of our young people gets when they get a little education. (MAMA and RUTH say nothing, just look at her) Yes well. Well, I guess I better get on home. (Unmoving) 'Course I can understand how she must be proud and everything being the only one in the family to make something of herself. I know just being a chauffeur ain't never satisfied Brother none. He shouldn't feel like that, though. Ain't nothing wrong with being a chauffeur.

A RAISIN IN THE SUN 103

MAMA There's plenty wrong with it.

JOHNSON What?

MAMA Plenty. My husband always said being any kind of a servant wasn't a fit thing for a man to have to be. He always said a man's hands was made to make things, or to turn the earth with not to drive nobody's car for 'em or (She looks at her own hands) carry they slop jars. And my boy is just like him he wasn't meant to wait on nobody.

JOHNSON (Rising, somewhat offended) Mmmmmmmmmm
The Youngers is too much for me! (She looks around)
You sure one proud-acting bunch of colored folks. Well
I always thinks like Booker T. Washington said that time "Education has spoiled many a good plow hand"

MAMA Is that what old Booker T. said?

JOHNSON He sure did.

MAMA Well, it sounds just like him. The fool.

JOHNSON (Indignantly) Well he was one of our great men.

MAMA Who said so?

JOHNSON (Nonplussed) You know, me and you ain't never agreed about some things, Lena Younger. I guess
I better be going

RUTH (Quickly) Good night.

JOHNSON Good night. Oh (Thrusting it at her) You can keep the paper! (With a trill) 'Night.

104 A RAISIN IN THE SUN

MAMA Good night, Mis' Johnson.
(MRS. JOHNSON exits)

RUTH If ignorance was gold * . . .

MAMA Shush. Don't talk about folks behind their backs.

RUTH You do.

MAMA I'm old and corrupted. (BENEATHA enters') You was rude to Mis' Johnson, Beneatha, and I don't like it at all.

BENEATHA (At her door) Mama, if there are two things we, as a people, have got to overcome, one is the Klu Klux Klan and the other is Mrs. Johnson. (She exits)

MAMA Smart aleck.

(The phone rings)

RUTH I'll get it.

MAMA Lord, ain't this a popular place tonight.

RUTH (At the phone) Hello Just a minute. (Goes to door) Walter, it's Mrs. Arnold. (Waits. Goes back to the phone. Tense) Hello. Yes, this is his wife speaking . . . He's lying down now. Yes . . . well, he'll be in tomorrow. He's been very sick. Yes I know we should have called, but we were so sure he'd be able to come in today. Yes yes, I'm very sorry. Yes . . . Thank you very much. (She hangs up. WALTER is standing in the doorway of the bedroom behind her) That was Mrs. Arnold.

WALTER (Indifferently) Was it?

RUTH She said if you don't come in tomorrow that they are getting a new man . . .

WALTER Ain't that sad ain't that crying sad.

A RAISIN IN THE SUN 105

RUTH She said Mr. Arnold has had to take a cab for three days . . . Walter, you ain't been to work for three days! (This is a revelation to her) Where you been, Walter Lee Younger? (WALTER looks at her and starts to laugh) You're going to lose your job.

WALTER That's right . . . (He turns on the radio)

RUTH Oh, Walter, and with your mother working like a dog every day

(A steamy, deep blues pours into the room)

WALTER That's sad too Everything is sad.

MAMA What you been doing for these three days, son?

WALTER Mama you don't know all the things a man what got leisure can find to do in this city . . . What's this Friday night? Well Wednesday I borrowed Willy Harris* car and I went for a drive . . . just me and myself and I drove and drove . . . Way out . . . way past South Chicago, and I parked the car and I sat and looked at the steel mills all day long. I just sat in the car and looked at them big black chimneys for hours. Then I drove back and I went to the Green Hat. (Pause) And Thursday Thursday I borrowed the car again and I got in it and I pointed it the other way and I drove the other way for hours way, way up to Wisconsin, and I looked at the farms. I just drove and looked at the farms. Then I drove back and I went to the Green Hat. (Pause) And today today I didn't get the car. Today I just walked. All over the Southside. And I looked at the Negroes and they looked at me and finally I just sat down on the curb at Thirty-ninth and South Parkway and I just sat there and watched the Negroes go by. And then I went to the Green Hat. You all sad? You all depressed? And you know where I am going right now

(RUTH goes out quietly)

106 A RAISIN IN THE SUN

MAMA Oh, Big Walter, is this the harvest of our days?

WALTER You know what I like about the Green Hat? I like this little cat they got there who blows a sax . . . He blows. He talks to me. He ain't but 'bout five feet tall and he's got a conked head and his eyes is always closed and he's all music

MAMA (Rising and getting some papers out of her handbag) Walter

WALTER And there's this other guy who plays the piano . . . and they got a sound. I mean they can work on some music . . . They got the best little combo in the world in the Green Hat . . . You can just sit there and drink and listen to them three men play and you realize that don't nothing matter worth a damn, but just being there MAMA I've helped do it to you, haven't I, son? Walter I been wrong.

WALTER Naw you ain't never been wrong about noth- ing, Mama.

MAMA Listen to me, now. I say I been wrong, son. That I been doing to you what the rest of the world been doing to you. (She turns off the radio) Walter (She stops and he looks up slowly at her and she meets his eyes pleadingly) What you ain't never understood is that I ain't got nothing, don't own nothing, ain't never really wanted nothing that wasn't for you. There ain't nothing as precious to me . . . There ain't nothing worth holding on to, money, dreams, nothing else if it means if it means it's going to destroy my boy. (She takes an envelope out of her handbag and puts it in front of him and he watches her without speaking or moving) I paid the man thirty-five hundred dollars down on the house. That leaves sixty-five hundred dollars. Monday morning

A RAISIN IN THE SUN 107

I want you to take this money and take three thousand dollars and put it in a savings account for Beneatha's medical schooling. The rest you put in a checking account with your name on it. And from now on any penny that come out of it or that go in it is for you to look after. For you to decide. (She drops her hands a little helplessly) It ain't much, but it's all I got in the world and I'm putting it in your hands. I'm telling you to be the head of this family from now on like you supposed to be.

WALTER (Stares at the money) You trust me like that. Mama?

MAMA I ain't never stop trusting you. Like I ain't never stop loving you.

(She goes out, and WALTER sits looking at the money on the table. Finally, in a decisive gesture, he gets up, and, in mingled joy and desperation, picks up the money. At the same moment, TRAVIS enters for bed)

TRAVIS What's the matter, Daddy? You drunk?

WALTER (Sweetly, more sweetly than we have ever known him) No, Daddy ain't drunk. Daddy ain't going to never be drunk again

TRAVIS Well, good night, Daddy.

(The FATHER has come from behind the couch and leans over, embracing his son)

WALTER Son, I feel like talking to you tonight.

TRAVIS About what?

WALTER Oh, about a lot of things. About you and what kind of man you going to be when you grow up. ... Son son, what do you want to be when you grow up?

108 A RAISIN IN THE SUN

TRAVIS A bus driver.

WALTER (Laughing a little) A what? Man, that ain't nothing to want to be!

TRAVIS Why not?

WALTER 'Cause, man it ain't big enough you know what I mean.

TRAVIS I don't know then. I can't make up my mind. Sometimes Mama asks me that too. And sometimes when I tell her I just want to be like you she says she don't want me to be like that and sometimes she says she does. . . .

WALTER (Gathering him up in his arms) You know what, Travis? In seven years you going to be seventeen years old. And things is going to be very different with us in seven years, Travis. . . . One day when you are seventeen I'll come home home from my office downtown somewhere

TRAVIS You don't work in no office, Daddy.

WALTER No but after tonight. After what your daddy gonna do tonight, there's going to be offices a whole lot of offices. . . .

TRAVIS What you gonna do tonight, Daddy?

WALTER You wouldn't understand yet, son, but your daddy's gonna make a transaction ... a business transaction that's going to change our lives. . . . That's how come one day when you 'bout seventeen years old I'll come home and I'll be pretty tired, you know what I mean, after a day of conferences and secretaries getting things wrong the way they do ... 'cause an executive's life is hell, man (The more he talks the farther away he gets) And I'll pull the car up on the driveway . . . just a plain black Chrysler, I think, with white walls no black tires. More elegant. Rich people don't have to be flashy . . . though I'll have to get something a little sportier for Ruth maybe a Cadillac convertible to do her shopping in. ... And I'll come tip the steps to the house and the gardener will be clipping away at the hedges and he'll say, "Good evening, Mr. Younger." And I'll say, "Hello, Jefferson, how are you this evening?" And I'll go inside and Ruth will come downstairs and meet me at the door and we'll kiss each other and she'll take my arm and we'll go up to your room to see you sitting on the floor with the catalogues of all the great schools in America around you. . . . All the great schools in the world! And and I'll say, all right son it's your seventeenth birthday, what is it you've decided? . . . Just tell me where you want to go to school and you'll go. Just tell me, what it is you want to be and you'll be it. . . . Whatever you want to be Yessir! (He holds his arms open for TRAVIS) You just name it, son . . . (TRAVIS leaps into them) and I hand you the world!

(WALTER'S voice has risen in pitch and hysterical promise and on the last line he lifts TRAVIS high)

(Blackout)

SCENE THREE

Time: Saturday, moving day, one week later.

Before the curtain rises, RUTH'S voice, a strident, dramatic church alto, cuts through the silence.

It is, in the darkness, a triumphant surge, a penetrating statement of expectation: "Oh, Lord, I don't feel no ways tired! Children, oh, glory hallelujah! 9'

As the curtain rises we see that RUTH is alone in the living room, finishing up the family's packing. It is moving day. She is nailing crates and tying cartons. BENEATHA enters, carrying a guitar case, and watches her exuberant sister-in-law.

RUTH Hey!

BENEATHA (Putting away the case) Hi.

RUTH (Pointing at a package) Honey look in that package there and see what I found on sale this morning at the South Center. (RUTH gets up and moves to the package and draws out some curtains) Lookahere hand-turned hems!

BENEATHA How do you know the window size out there?

RUTH (Who hadn't thought of that) Oh Well, they bound to fit something in the whole house. Anyhow, they was too good a bargain to pass up. (RUTH slaps her head, suddenly remembering something) Oh, Ben-nie I meant to put a special note on that carton over there. That's your mama's good china and she wants 5 em to be very careful with it.

BENEATHA I'll do it

(BENEATHA finds a piece of paper and starts to draw large letters on it)

RUTH You know what I'm going to do soon as I get in that new house?

BENEATHA What?

RUTH Honey I'm going to run me a tub of water up to here . . . (With her fingers practically up to her nos-trils} And I'm going to get in it and I am going to sit ... and sit ... and sit in that hot water and the first person who knocks to tell me to hurry up and come out BENEATHA Gets shot at sunrise.

RUTH (Laughing happily) You said it, sister! (Noticing how large BENEATHA is absent-mindedly making the note) Honey, they ain't going to read that from no airplane.

BENEATHA (Laughing herself) I guess I always think things have more emphasis if they are big, somehow.

RUTH (Looking up at her and smiling) You and your brother seem to have that as a philosophy of life. Lord, that man done changed so 'round here. You know you know what we did last night? Me and Walter Lee?

BENEATHA What?

RUTH (Smiling to herself) We went to the movies. (Looking at BENEATHA to see if she understands) We went to the movies. You know the last time me and Walter went to the movies together?

BENEATHA No.

RUTH Me neither. That's how long it been. (Smiling again) But we went last night. The picture wasn't much good, but that didn't seem to matter. We went and we held hands.

BENEATHA Oh, Lord!

RUTH We held hands and you know what?

BENEATHA What?

RUTH When we come out of the show it was late and dark and all the stores and things was closed up ... and it was kind of chilly and there wasn't many people on the streets . . . and we was still holding hands, me and Walter.

BENEATHA You're killing me.

(A RAISIN IN THE SUN 111)

(WALTER enters with a large package. His happiness is deep in him; he cannot keep still with his new-found exuberance. He is singing and wiggling and snapping his fingers. He puts his package in a corner and puts a phonograph record, which he has brought in with him, on the record player. As the music, soulful and sensuous, comes up he dances over to RUTH and tries to get her to dance with him. She gives in at last to his raunchiness and in a fit of giggling allows herself to be drawn into his mood. They dip and she melts into his arms in a classic, body-melding "slow drag")

BENEATHA (Regarding them a long time as they dance, then drawing in her breath for a deeply exaggerated comment which she does not particularly mean) Talk about oldddddddddd Negroes!

WALTER (Stopping momentarily) What kind of Negroes?

(BENEATHA breaks up and he goes on dancing. He stops again, enjoying his tease) Damn, even the N double A C P takes a holiday sometimes! (BENEATHA and RUTH laugh. He dances with RUTH some more and starts to laugh and stops and pantomimes someone over an operating table) I can just see that chick someday looking down at some poor cat on an operating table and before she starts to slice him, she says . . . (Pulling his sleeves back maliciously) "By the way, what are your views on civil rights down there? . . ."

(He laughs at her again and starts to dance happily. The bell sounds)

BENEATHA Sticks and stones may break my bones but . . . words will never hurt me!

(BENEATHA goes to the door and opens it as WALTER and RUTH go on with the clowning. BENEATHA is somewhat surprised to see a quiet-looking middle-aged white man in a business suit holding his hat and a briefcase in his hand and consulting a small piece of paper)

MAN Uh how do you do, miss. I am looking for a Mrs. (He looks at the slip of paper) Mrs. Lena Younger? (He stops short, struck dumb at the sight of the oblivious WALTER and RUTH)

BENEATHA (Smoothing her hair with slight embarrassment) Oh yes, that's my mother. Excuse me (She closes the door and turns to quiet the other two) Ruth! Brother! (Enunciating precisely but soundlessly: "There's a white man at the doorr They stop dancing, RUTH cuts off the phonograph, BENEATHA opens the door. The man casts a curious quick glance at all of them) Uh come in please.

MAN {Coming in) Thank you.

BENEATHA My mother isn't here just now. Is it business?

MAN Yes . . . well, of a sort.

WALTER (Freely, the Man of the House) Have a seat. I'm Mrs. Younger's son. I look after most of her business matters.

(RUTH and BENEATHA exchange amused glances)

MAN (Regarding WALTER, and sitting) Well My name is Karl Lindner . . .

WALTER (Stretching out his hand) Walter Younger. This is my wife (RUTH nods politely) and my sister.

LINDNER How do you do.

WALTER (Amiably, as he sits himself easily on a chair, leaning forward on his knees with interest and looking expectantly into the newcomer's face) What can we do for you, Mr. Lindner!

LINDNER (Some minor shuffling of the hat and briefcase on his knees) Well I am a representative of the Clybourne Park Improvement Association

WALTER (Pointing) Why don't you sit your things on the floor?

LINDNER Oh yes. Thank you. (He slides the briefcase and hat under the chair) And as I was saying I am from the Clybourne Park Improvement Association and we have had it brought to our attention at the last meeting that you people or at least your mother has bought a piece of residential property at (He digs for the slip of paper again) four o six Clybourne Street . . .

A RAISIN IN THE SUN 115

WALTER That's right. Care for something to drink? Ruth, get Mr. Lindner a beer.

LINDNER (Upset for some reason) Oh no, really. I mean thank you very much, but no thank you.

RUTH (Innocently) Some coffee?

LINDNER Thank you, nothing at all.

(BENEATHA is watching the man carefully)

LINDNER Well, I don't know how much you folks know about our organization. (He is a gentle man; thoughtful and somewhat labored in his manner) It is one of these community organizations set up to look after oh, you know, things like block upkeep and special projects and we also have what we call our New Neighbors Orientation Committee . . .

BENEATHA (Drily) Yes and what do they do?

LINDNER Well, I don't know how much you folks know about our organization. (He is a gentle man; thoughtful and somewhat labored in his manner) It is one of these community organizations set up to look after oh, you know, things like block upkeep and special projects and we also have what we call our New Neighbors Orientation Committee . . .

BENEATHA (Drily) Yes and what do they do?

LINDNER (Turning a little to her and then returning the main force to WALTER) Well it's what you might call a sort of welcoming committee, I guess. I mean they, we I'm the chairman of the committee go around and see the new people who move into the neighborhood and sort of give them the lowdown on the way we do things out in Clybourne Park.

BENEATHA (With appreciation of the two meanings, which escape RUTH and WALTER) Un-huh.

LINDNER And we also have the category of what the association calls (He looks elsewhere) uh special community problems . . .

BENEATHA Yes and what are some of those?

WALTER Girl, let the man talk.

116 A RAISIN IN THE SUN
LINDNER (With understated relief) Thank you. I would sort of like to explain this thing in my own way. I mean I want to explain to you in a certain way.

WALTER Go ahead.

LINDNER Yes. Well. I'm going to try to get right to the point. I'm sure we'll all appreciate that in the long run.

BENEATHA Yes.

WALTER Be still now!

LINDNER Well

RUTH (Still innocently) Would you like another chair you don't look comfortable.

LINDNER (More frustrated than annoyed) No, thank you very much. Please. Well to get right to the point I (A great breath, and he is off at last) I am sure you people must be aware of some of the incidents which have happened in various parts of the city when colored people have moved into certain areas (BENEATHA exhales heavily and starts tossing a piece of fruit up and down in the air) Well because we have what I think is going to be a unique type of organization in American community life not only do we deplore that kind of thing but we are trying to do something about it. (BENEATHA stops tossing and turns with a new and quizzical interest to the man) We feel (gaining confidence in his mission because of the interest in the faces of the people he is talking to) we feel that most of the trouble in this world, when you come right down to it (He hits his knee for emphasis) most of the trouble exists because people just don't sit down and talk to each other.

RUTH (Nodding as she might in church, pleased with the remark) You can say that again, mister.

A RAISIN IN THE SUN 117

LINDNER (More encouraged by such affirmation) That we don't try hard enough in this world to understand the other fellow's problem. The other guy's point of view.

RUTH Now that's right.

(BENEATHA and WALTER merely watch and listen with genuine interest)

LINDNER Yes that's the way we feel out in Clybourne Park. And that's why I was elected to come here this afternoon and talk to you people. Friendly like, you know, the way people should talk to each other and see if we couldn't find some way to work this thing out. As I say, the whole business is a matter of caring about the other fellow. Anybody can see that you are a nice family of folks, hard working and honest I'm sure. (BENEATHA frowns slightly, quizzically, her head tilted regarding him) Today everybody knows what it means to be on the outside of something. And of course, there is always somebody who is out to take advantage of people who don't always understand.

WALTER What do you mean?

LINDNER Well you see our community is made up of people who've worked hard as the dickens for years to build up that little community. They're not rich and fancy people; just hard-working, honest people who don't really have much but those little homes and a dream of the kind of community they want to raise their children in. Now, I don't say we are perfect and there is a lot wrong in some of the things they want. But you've got to admit that a man, right or wrong, has the right to want to have the neighborhood he lives in a certain kind of way. And at the moment the overwhelming majority of our people out there feel that people get along better, take more of a common interest in the life of the community, when they share a common background. I want you to believe me when I tell you that race prejudice simply doesn't enter into it. It is a matter of the people of Clybourne Park believing, rightly or wrongly, as I say, that for the happiness of all concerned that our Negro families are happier when they live in their own communities.

BENEATHA (With a grand and bitter gesture) This, friends, is the Welcoming Committee!

WALTER (Dumjounded, looking at LINDNER) Is this what you came marching all the way over here to tell us?

LINDNER Well, now we've been having a fine conversation. I hope you'll hear me all the way through.

WALTER (Tightly) Go ahead, man.

LINDNER You see in the face of all the things I have said, we are prepared to make your family a very generous offer . . .

BENEATHA Thirty pieces and not a coin less!

WALTER Yeah?

LINDNER (Putting on his glasses and drawing a form out of the briefcase) Our association is prepared, through the collective effort of our people, to buy the house from you at a financial gain to your family.

RUTH Lord have mercy, ain't this the living gall!

WALTER All right, you through?
LINDNER Well, I want to give you the exact terms of the financial arrangement.

WALTER We don't want to hear no exact terms of no arrangements. I want to know if you got any more to tell us 'bout getting together?

A RAISIN IN THE SUN 119

LINDNER (Taking off his glasses) Well I don't suppose that you feel . . .

WALTER Never mind how I feel you got any more to say 'bout how people ought to sit down and talk to each other? . . . Get out of my house, man.

(He turns his back and walks to the door)

LINDNER (Looking around at the hostile faces and reaching and assembling his hat and briefcase) Well I don't understand why you people are reacting this way. What do you think you are going to gain by moving into a neighborhood where you just aren't wanted and where some elements well people can get awful worked up when they feel that their whole way of life and everything they've ever worked for is threatened.

WALTER Get out.

LINDNER (At the door, holding a small card) Well I'm sorry it went like this.

WALTER Get out.

LINDNER (Almost sadly regarding WALTER) You just can't force people to change their hearts, son.

(He turns and put his card on a table and exits. WALTER and RUTH giggle)

MAMA Well this all the packing got done since I left out of here this morning. I testify before God that my children got all the energy of the deadl What time the moving men due?

BENEATHA Four o'clock. You had a caller, Mama.

(MAMA is smiling, teasingly)

MAMA Sure enough who?

BENEATHA (Her arms folded saucily) The Welcoming Committee.

(WALTER and RUTH giggle)

MAMA (Innocently) Who?

BENEATHA The Welcoming Committee. They said they're sure going to be glad to see you when you get there.

WALTER (Devilishly) Yeah, they said they can't hardly wait to see your face.

(Laughter)

MAMA (Sensing their facetiousness) What's the matter with you all?

WALTER Ain't nothing the matter with us. We just telling you 'bout the gentleman who came to see you this afternoon. From the Clybourne Park Improvement Association.

MAMA What he want?

RUTH (In the same mood as BENEATHA and WALTER) To welcome you, honey.

WALTER He said they can't hardly wait. He said the one thing they don't have, that they just dying to have out there is a fine family of fine colored people! (To RUTH and BENEATHA) Ain't that right!

RUTH (Mockingly) Yeah! He left his card

BENEATHA (Handing card to MAMA) In case.

(MAMA reads and throws it on the floor understanding and looking off as she draws her chair up to the table on which she has put her plant and some sticks and some cord)

MAMA Father, give us strength. (Knowingly and without fun) Did he threaten us?

A RAISIN IN THE SUN 121

BENEATHA Oh Mama they don't do it like that any more. He talked Brotherhood. He said everybody ought to learn how to sit down and hate each other with good Christian fellowship.

(She and WALTER shake hands to ridicule the remark)

MAMA (Sadly) Lord, protect us . . .

RUTH You should hear the money those folks raised to buy the house from us. All we paid and then some.

BENEATHA What they think we going to do eat 'em?
RUTH No, honey, many 'em.

MAMA (Shaking her head) Lord, Lord, Lord . . .

RUTH Well that's the way the crackers crumble. (A beat) Joke.

BENEATHA (Laughingly noticing what her mother is doing) Mama, what are you doing?

MAMA Fixing my plant so it won't get hurt none on the way . . .

BENEATHA Mama, you going to take that to the new house?

MAMA Un-huh

BENEATHA That raggedy-looking old thing?

MAMA (Stopping and looking at her) It expresses ME!

RUTH (With delight, to BENEATHA) So there, Miss Thing!

(WALTER comes to MAMA suddenly and bends down behind her and squeezes her in his arms with all his strength. She is overwhelmed by the suddenness of it and, though delighted, her manner is like that of RUTH and TRAVIS)

WALTER When I get to heaven gonna put on my wings, Gonna fly all over God's heaven . . .

BENEATHA (Teasingly, from across the room) Everybody talking 'bout heaven ain't going there!

WALTER (To RUTH, who is carrying the box across to them) I don't know, you think we ought to give her that . . . Seems to me she ain't been very appreciative around here.

MAMA (Eying the box, which is obviously a gift) What is that?

WALTER (Taking it from RUTH and putting it on the table in front of MAMA) Well what you all think? Should we give it to her?

122 A RAISIN IN THE SUN

MAMA Look out now, boy! You make me mess up my thing here!

WALTER (His face lit, he slips down on his knees beside her, his arms still about her) Mama . . . you know what it means to climb up in the chariot?

MAMA (Gruffly, very happy) Get on away from me now . . .

RUTH (Near the gift-wrapped package, trying to catch WALTER'S eye) Psst

WALTER What the old song say, Mama . . .

RUTH Walter Now?

(She is pointing at the package)

WALTER (Speaking the lines, sweetly, playfully, in his mother's face)

I got wings . . . you got wings . . .
All God's Children got wings . . .
MAMA Boy get out of my face and do some work . . .

WALTER Open it, Mama. (WALTER continues, prodding) Ruth made up the note read it . . .

MAMA (Picking up the card and adjusting her glasses) "To our own Mrs. Miniver Love from Brother, Ruth and Beneatha." Ain't that lovely . . .

TRAVIS (Tugging at his father's sleeve) Daddy, can I give her mine now?

WALTER All right, son. (TRAVIS flies to get his gift)

MAMA Now I don't have to use my knives and forks no more . . .

WALTER Travis didn't want to go in with the rest of us, Mama. He got his own. (Somewhat amused) We don't know what it is . . .

TRAVIS (Racing back in the room with a large hatbox and putting it in front of his grandmother) Here!
MAMA Lord have mercy, baby. You done gone and bought your grandmother a hat?

TRAVIS (Very proud) Open it!

(She does and lifts out an elaborate, but very elaborate, wide gardening hat, and all the adults break up at the sight of it)

124 A RAISIN IN THE SUN

RUTH Travis, honey, what is that?

TRAVIS (Who thinks it is beautiful and appropriate) It's a gardening hat! Like the ladies always have on in the magazines when they work in their gardens.

BENEATHA (Giggling fiercely) Travis we were trying to make Mania Mrs. Miniver not Scarlett O'Hara!

MAMA (Indignantly) What's the matter with you all! This here is a beautiful hat! (Absurdly) I always wanted me one just like it!

(She pops it on her head to prove it to her grandson, and the hat is ludicrous and considerably oversized)

RUTH Hot dog! Go, Mama!

WALTER (Doubled over with laughter) I'm sorry, Mama but you look like you ready to go out and chop you some cotton sure enough!

(They all laugh except MAMA, out of deference to TRAVIS' feelings)

MAMA (Gathering the boy up to her) Bless your heart this is the prettiest hat I ever owned (WALTER, RUTH and BENEATHA chime in noisily, festively and insincerely congratulating TRAVIS on his gift) What are we all standing around here for? We ain't finished packin' yet. Bennie, you ain't packed one book. (The bell rings)

BENEATHA That couldn't be the movers... it's not hardly two good yet

(BENEATHA goes into her room. MAMA starts for door)

WALTER (Turning, stiffening) Wait wait I'll get it. (He stands and looks at the door)

MAMA You expecting company, son?

WALTER (Just looking at the door) Yeah yeah...

(MAMA looks at RUTH, and they exchange innocent and unfrightened glances')

MAMA (Not understanding) Well, let them in, son*

BENEATHA (From her room) We need some more string.

MAMA Travis you run to the hardware and get me some string cord.

(RUTH Why don't you answer the door, man?

WALTER (Suddenly bounding across the floor to embrace her) 'Cause sometimes it hard to let the future begin! (Stooping down in her face)

I got wings! You got wings!

All God's children got wings!

(He crosses to the door and throws it open. Standing there is a very slight little man in a not too prosperous business suit and with haunted frightened eyes and a hat pulled down tightly, brim up, around his forehead. TRAVIS passes between the men and exits. WALTER leans deep in the man's face, still in his jubilation)

When I get to heaven gonna put on my wings, Gonna fly all over God's heaven...

(The little man just stares at him)

Heaven

(Suddenly he stops and looks past the little man into the empty hallway) Where's Willy, man?

BOBO He ain't with me.

WALTER (Not disturbed) Oh come on in. You know my wife.

126 A RAISIN IN THE SUN

BOBO (Dumbly, taking off his hat) Yes h'you, Miss Ruth.

RUTH (Quietly, a mood apart from her husband already, seeing BOBO) Hello, Bobo.

WALTER You right on time today... Right on time.

That's the way! (He slaps BOBO on his back) Sit down
... lemme hear.

(RUTH stands stiffly and quietly in back of them, as though somehow she senses death, her eyes fixed on her husband)

BOBO (His frightened eyes on the floor, his hat in his hands) Could I please get a drink of water, before I tell you about it, Walter Lee?

(WALTER does not take his eyes off the man. RUTH goes blindly to the tap and gets a glass of water and brings it to BOBO)

WALTER There ain't nothing wrong, is there?

BOBO Lemme tell you

WALTER Man didn't nothing go wrong?

BOBO Lemme tell you Walter Lee. (Looking at RUTH and talking to her more than to WALTER) You know how it was. I got to tell you how it was. I mean first I got to tell you how it was all the way ... I mean about the money I put in, Walter Lee . . .

WALTER (With taut agitation now) What about the money you put in?

BOBO Well it wasn't much as we told you me and Willy (He stops) I'm sorry, Walter. I got a bad feeling about it. I got a real bad feeling about it ...

WALTER Man, what you telling me about all this for? . . . Tell me what happened in Springfield . . .

A RAISIN IN THE SUN - 127

BOBO Springfield.

RUTH (Like a dead woman) What was supposed to happen in Springfield?

BOBO (To her) This deal that me and Walter went into with Willy Me and Willy was going to go down to Springfield and spread some money 'round so's we wouldn't have to wait so long for the liquor license . . . That's what we were going to do. Everybody said that was the way you had to do, you understand, Miss Ruth?

WALTER Man what happened down there?

BOBO (A pitiful man, near tears) I'm trying to tell you, Walter.

WALTER (Screaming at him suddenly) THEN TELL ME, GODDAMMIT . . . WHAT'S THE MATTER WITH YOU?

BOBO Man ... I didn't go to no Springfield, yesterday.

WALTER (Halted, life hanging in the moment) Why not?

BOBO (The long way, the hard way to tell) 'Cause I didn't have no reasons to ...

WALTER Man, what are you talking about!

BOBO I'm talking about the fact that when I got to the train station yesterday morning eight o'clock like we planned . . . Man Witty didn't never show up.

WALTER Why . . . where was he . . . where is he?

BOBO That's what I'm trying to tell you ... I don't know . . . I waited six hours . . . I called his house . . . and I waited . . . six hours . . . I waited in that train station six hours . . . (Breaking into tears) That was all the extra money I had in the world . . .

128 A RAISIN IN THE SUN

(Looking up at WALTER with the tears running down his face) Man, Willy is gone.

WALTER Gone, what you mean Willy is gone? Gone where? You mean he went by himself. You mean he went off to Springfield by himself to take care of getting the license (Turns and looks anxiously at RUTH) You mean maybe he didn't want too many people in on the business down there? (Looks to RUTH again, as before) You know Willy got his own ways. (Looks back to BOBO) Maybe you was late yesterday and he just went on down there without you. Maybe maybe he's been callin' you at home tryin' to tell you what happened or something. Maybe maybe he just got sick. He's somewhere he's got to be somewhere. We just got to find him me and you got to find him. (Grabs BOBO senselessly by the collar and starts to shake him) We got to!

BOBO (In sudden angry, frightened agony) What's the matter with you, Walter! When a cat take off with your money he don't leave you no road maps!

WALTER (Turning madly, as though he is looking for WILLY in the very room) Willy! . . . Willy . . . don't do it . . . Please don't do it ... Man, not with that money * . . . Man, please, not with that money . . . Oh, God . . . Don't let it be true . . . (He is wandering around, crying out for WILLY and looking for him or perhaps for help from God) Man ... I trusted you . . . . Man, I put my life in your hands . . . * (He starts to crumple down on the floor as RUTH just covers her face in horror. MAMA opens the door and comes into the room, with BENEATHA behind her) Man . . . (He starts to pound the floor with his fists, sobbing wildly) THAT MONEY IS MADE OUT OF MY FATHER'S FLESH
A RAISIN IN THE SUN 129

BOBO (Standing over him helplessly) Fm sorry, Walter . . . (Only WALTER'S sobs reply. BOBO puts on his hat) I had my life staked on this deal, too . . . (He exits)

MAMA (To WALTER) Son (She goes to him, bends down to him, talks to his bent head) Son . . . Is it gone? Son, I gave you sixty-live hundred dollars. Is it gone? All of it? Beneatha's money too?

WALTER (Lifting his head slowly) Mama . . . I never . . . went to the bank at all . . .

MAMA (Not wanting to believe him) You mean . . . your sister's school money . . . you used that too . . . Walter? . . .

WALTER Yessss! All of it . . . It's all gone . . .

(There is total silence. RUTH stands with her face covered with her hands; BENEATHA sits forlornly against a wall, fingering a piece of red ribbon from the mother's gift. MAMA stops and looks at her son without recognition and then, quite without thinking about it, starts to beat him senselessly in the face. BENEATHA goes to them and stops it)

BENEATHA Mama!

(MAMA stops and looks at both of her children and rises slowly and wanders vaguely, aimlessly away from them)

MAMA I seen . . . him . . . night after night . . . come in . . . and look at that rug . . . and then look at me . . . the red showing in his eyes . . . the veins moving in his head . . . I seen him grow thin and old before he was forty . . . working and working and working like somebody's old horse . . . killing himself . . . and you you give it all away in a day (She raises her arms to strike him again)

BENEATHA Africa!

ASAGAI What kind of a mood is this? Have I told you how deeply you move me?

BENEATHA He gave away the money, Asagai . . .

ASAGAI Who gave away what money?

BENEATHA The insurance money. My brother gave it away.

ASAGAI Gave it away?

BENEATHA He made an investment! With a man even Travis wouldn't have trusted with his most worn-out marbles.

ASAGAI And it's gone?

BENEATHA Gone!

ASAGAI I'm very sorry . . . And you, now?

ACT III

An hour later.

At curtain, there is a sullen light of gloom in the living room, gray light not unlike that which began the first scene of Act One. At left we can see WALTER within his room, alone with himself. He is stretched out on the bed, his shirt out and open, his arms under his head. He does not smoke, he does not cry out, he merely lies there, looking up at the ceiling, much as if he were alone in the world.

In the living room BENEATHA sits at the table, still surrounded by the now almost ominous packing crates. She sits looking off. We feel that this is a mood struck perhaps an hour before, and it lingers now, full of the empty sound of profound disappointment. We see on a line from her brother's bedroom the sameness of their attitudes. Presently the bell rings and BENEATHA rises without ambition or interest in answering. It is ASAGAI, smiling broadly, striding into the room with energy and happy expectation and conversation.

ASAGAI I came over . . . I had some free time. I thought I might help with the packing. Ah, I like the look of packing crates! A household in preparation for a journey! It depresses some people . . . but for me . . . it is another feeling. Something full of the flow of life, do you understand? Movement, progress . . . It makes me think of Africa.

131 (blank page)

132 A RAISIN IN THE SUN

BENEATHA Africa!

ASAGAI What kind of a mood is this? Have I told you how deeply you move me?

BENEATHA He gave away the money, Asagai . . .

ASAGAI Who gave away what money?

BENEATHA The insurance money. My brother gave it away.

ASAGAI Gave it away?

BENEATHA He made an investment! With a man even Travis wouldn't have trusted with his most worn-out marbles.

ASAGAI And it's gone?

BENEATHA Gone!

ASAGAI I'm very sorry . . . And you, now?

Curtain
BENEATHA Me? . . . Me? . . . Me, I'm nothing . . . Me. When I was very small . . . we used to take our sleds out in the wintertime and the only hills we had were the ice-covered stone steps of some houses down the street. And we used to fill them in with snow and make them smooth and slide down them all day . . . and it was very dangerous, you know . . . far too steep . . . and sure enough one day a kid named Rufus came down too fast and hit the sidewalk and we saw his face just split open right there in front of us . . . And I remember standing there looking at his bloody open face thinking that was the end of Rufus. But the ambulance came and they took him to the hospital and they fixed the broken bones and they sewed it all up . . . and the next time I saw

A RAISIN IN THE SUN 133

Rufus he just had a little line down the middle of his face . . . I never got over that . . .

ASAGAI What?

BENEATHA That that was what one person could do for another, fix him up sew up the problem, make him all right again. That was the most marvelous thing in the world . . . I wanted to do that. I always thought it was the one concrete thing in the world that a human being could do. Fix up the sick, you know and make them whole again. This was truly being God . . .

ASAGAI You wanted to be God?

BENEATHA No I wanted to cure. It used to be so important to me. I wanted to cure. It used to matter. I used to care. I mean about people and how their bodies hurt . . .

ASAGAI And you've stopped caring?

BENEATHA Yes I think so.

ASAGAI Why?

BENEATHA (Bitterly) Because it doesn't seem deep enough, close enough to what ails mankind! It was a child's way of seeing things or an idealist's.

ASAGAI Children see things very well sometimes and idealists even better.

BENEATHA I know that's what you think. Because you are still where I left off. You with all your talk and dreams about Africa! You still think you can patch up the world. Cure the Great Sore of Colonialism (Loftily, mocking it) with the Penicillin of Independence!

ASAGAI Yes!

BENEATHA Independence and then what? What about all the crooks and thieves and just plain idiots who will come into power and steal and plunder the same as before only now they will be black and do it in the name of the new Independence WHAT ABOUT THEM?!

ASAGAI That will be the problem for another time. First we must get there.

BENEATHA And where does it end?

ASAGAI End? Who even spoke of an end? To life? To living?

BENEATHA An end to misery! To stupidity! Don't you see there isn't any real progress, Asagai, there is only one large circle that we march in, around and around, each of us with our own little picture in front of us our own little mirage that we think is the future.

ASAGAI That is the mistake.

BENEATHA What?

ASAGAI What you just said about the circle. It isn't a circle it is simply a long line as in geometry, you know, one that reaches into infinity. And because we cannot see the end we also cannot see how it changes. And it is very odd but those who see the changes who dream, who will not give up are called idealists . . . and those who see only the circle we call them the "realists"!

BENEATHA Asagai, while I was sleeping in that bed in there, people went out and took the future right out of my hands! And nobody asked me, nobody consulted me they just went out and changed my life!

ASAGAI Was it your money?

BENEATHA What?

ASAGAI Was it your money he gave away?

A RAISIN IN THE SUN 135

BENEATHA It belonged to all of us.

ASAGAI But did you earn it? Would you have had it at all if your father had not died?

BENEATHA No.

ASAGAI Then isn't there something wrong in a house in a world where all dreams, good or bad, must depend on the death of a man? I never thought to see you like this, Alaiyo. You! Your brother made a mistake and you are grateful to him so that now you can give up the ailing human race on account of it! You talk about what good is struggle, what good is anything! Where are we all going and why are we bothering?

BENEATHA AND YOU CANNOT ANSWER IT!

ASAGAI (Shouting over her) I LIVE THE ANSWER! (Pause) In my village at home it is the exceptional man who can even read a newspaper ... or who ever sees a book at all. I will go home and much of what I will have to say will seem strange to the people of my village. But I will teach and work and things will happen, slowly and swiftly. At times it will seem that nothing changes at all ... and then again the sudden dramatic events which make history leap into the future. And then quiet again. Retrogression even. Guns, murder, revolution. And I even will have moments when I wonder if the quiet was not better than all that death and hatred. But I will look about my village at the illiteracy and disease and ignorance and I will not wonder long. And perhaps ... perhaps I will be a great man ... I mean perhaps I will hold on to the substance of truth and find my way always with the right course ... and perhaps for it I will be butchered in my bed some night by the servants of empire . . .

BENEATHA The martyr!

136 A RAISIN IN THE SUN

ASAGAI (He smiles) ... or perhaps I shall live to be a very old man, respected and esteemed in my new nation . . . And perhaps I shall hold office and this is what I am trying to tell you, Alaiyo: Perhaps the things I believe now for my country will be wrong and outmoded, and I will not understand and do terrible things to have things my way or merely to keep my power. Don't you see that there will be young men and women not British soldiers then, but my own black countrymen to step out of the shadows some evening and slit my then useless throat? Don't you see they have always been there . . . that they always will be. And that such a thing as my own death will be an advance? They who might kill me even ... actually replenish all that I was.

BENEATHA Oh, Asagai, I know all that.

ASAGAI Good! Then stop moaning and groaning and tell me what you plan to do.

BENEATHA Do?

ASAGAI I have a bit of a suggestion.

BENEATHA What?

ASAGAI (Rather quietly for him) That when it is all over that you come home with me

BENEATHA (Staring at him and crossing away with exasperation) Oh Asagai at this moment you decide to be romantic!

ASAGAI (Quickly understanding the misunderstanding) My dear, young creature of the New World I do. not mean across the city I mean across the ocean: home to Africa.

BENEATHA (Slowly understanding and turning to him with murmured amazement) To Africa?

A RAISIN IN THE SUN 137

ASAGAI Yes! . . . (Smiling and lifting his arms playfully) Three hundred years later the African Prince rose up out of the seas and swept the maiden back across the middle passage over which her ancestors had come BENEATHA ( Unable to play) To to Nigeria?

ASAGAI Nigeria. Home. (Coming to her with genuine romantic flippancy) I will show you our mountains and our stars; and give you cool drinks from gourds and teach you the old songs and the ways of our people and, in time, we will pretend that (Very Softly) you have only been away for a day. Say that you'll come (He swings her around and takes her full in his arms in a kiss which proceeds to passion)

BENEATHA (Pulling away suddenly) You're getting me all mixed up

ASAGAI Why?

BENEATHA Too many things too many things have happened today. I must sit down and think. I don't know what I feel about anything right this minute. (She promptly sits down and props her chin on her fist)

ASAGAI (Charmed) All right, I shall leave you. No don't get up. (Touching her, gently, sweetly) Just sit awhile and think . . . Never be afraid to sit awhile and think. (He goes to door and looks at her) How often I have looked at you and said, "Ah so this is what the New World hath finally wrought . . ."

(He exits. BENEATHA sits on alone. Presently WALTER enters from his room and starts to rummage through things, feverishly looking for something. She looks up and turns in her seat)

BENEATHA (Hissingly) Yes just look at what the New World hath wrought! . . . Just look! (She gestures with
There he is! Monsieur le petit bourgeois noir himself! There he is Symbol of a Rising Class! Entrepreneur! Titan of the system! (WALTER ignores her completely and continues frantically and destructively looking for something and hurling things to floor and tearing things out of their place in his search. BENEATHA ignores the eccentricity of his actions and goes on with the monologue of insult) Did you dream of yachts on Lake Michigan, Brother? Did you see yourself on that Great Day sitting down at the Conference Table, surrounded by all the mighty bald-headed men in America? AH halted, waiting, breathless, waiting for your pronouncements on industry? Waiting for you Chairman of the Board! (WALTER finds what he is looking for a small piece of white paper and pushes it in his pocket and puts on his coat and rushes out without ever having looked at her. She shouts after him) I look at you and I see the final triumph of stupidity in the world!

(The door slams and she returns to just sitting again. RUTH comes quickly out of MAMA's room)

RUTH Who was that?
BENEATHA Your husband.
RUTH Where did he go?

BENEATHA Who knows maybe he has an appointment at U.S. Steel.

RUTH (Anxiously, with frightened eyes) You didn't say nothing bad to him, did you?

BENEATHA Bad? Say anything bad to him? No I told him he was a sweet boy and full of dreams and everything is strictly peachy keen, as the ofay kids say!

(MAMA enters from her bedroom. She is lost, vague, trying to catch hold, to make some sense of her former command of the world, but it still eludes her. A sense of waste overwhelms her gait; a measure of apology rides on her shoulders. She goes to her plant, which has remained on the table, looks at it, picks it up and takes it to the window sill and sits it outside, and she stands and looks at it a long moment. Then she closes the window, straightens her body with effort and turns around to her children)

MAMA Well ain't it a mess in here, though? (A false cheerfulness, a beginning of something) I guess we all better stop moping around and get some work done. All this unpacking and everything we got to do. (RUTH raises her head slowly in response to the sense of the line; and BENEATHA in similar manner turns very slowly to look at her mother) One of you all better call the moving people and tell 'em not to come.

RUTH Tell 'em not to come?

MAMA Of course, baby. Ain't no need in 'em coming all the way here and having to go back. They charges for that too. (She sits down, fingers to her brow, thinking) Lord, ever since I was a little girl, I always remembers people saying, "Lena Lena Eggleston, you aims too high all the time. You needs to slow down and see life a little more like it is. Just slow down some." That's what they always used to say down home "Lord, that Lena Eggleston is a high-minded thing. She'll get her due one day!"

RUTH No, Lena ...

MAMA Me and Big Walter just didn't never learn right.

RUTH Lena, no! We gotta go. Bennie tell her ...

(MAMA reaches out absentely and pats RUTH'S hand)

MAMA (To herself) Just aimed too high all the time

RUTH (Turning and going to MAMA fast the words pouring out with urgency and desperation) Lena Til work . . . I'll work twenty hours a day in all the kitchens in Chicago . . . Fll strap my baby on my back if I have to and scrub all the floors in America and wash all the sheets in America if I have to but we got to MOVE! We got to get OUT OF HERE!!

(MAMA looks at both of them, pleadingly) Sometimes you just got to know when to give up some things . . . and hold on to what you got . . .

(WALTER enters from the outside, looking spent and leaning against the door, his coat hanging MAMA Where you been, son?
WALTER (Breathing hard) Made a call

MAMA To who, son?
WALTER To The Man. (He heads for his room)
MAMA What man, baby?
WALTER (Stops in the door) The Man, Mama. Don't you know who The Man is?
RUTH Walter Lee?
WALTER The Man. Like the guys in the streets say The Man. Captain Boss Mistuh Charley . . . Old Cap'n Please Mr. Bossman . . .
BENEATHA (Suddenly) Lindner!
WALTER That's right! That's good. I told him to come right over.
BENEATHA (Fiercely, understanding) For what? What do you want to see him for!
WALTER (Looking at his sister) We going to do business with him.

MAMA What you talking 'bout, son?
WALTER Talking 'bout life, Mama. You all always telling me to see life like it is. Well I laid in there on my back today . . . and I figured it out. Life just like it is. Who gets and who don't get. (He sits down with his coat on and laughs) Mama, you know it's all divided up. Life is. Sure enough. Between the takers and the "tooken." (He laughs) I've figured it out finally. (He looks around at them) Yeah. Some of us always getting "tooken." (He laughs) People like Willy Harris, they don't never get "tooken." And you know why the rest of us do? 'Cause we all mixed up. Mixed up bad. We get to looking 'round for the right and the wrong; and we worry about it and cry about it and stay up nights trying to figure out 'bout the wrong and the right of things all the time . . . And all the time, man, them takers is out there operating, just taking and taking. Willy Harris? Shoot Willy Harris don't even count. He don't even count in the big scheme of things. But I'll say one thing for old Willy Harris . . . he's taught me something. He's taught me to keep my eye on what counts in this world. Yeah (Shouting out a little) Thanks, Willy!

RUTH What did you call that man for, Walter Lee?
WALTER Called him to tell him to come on over to the show. Gonna put on a show for the man. Just what he wants to see. You see, Mama, the man came here today and he told us that them people out there where you want us to move well they so upset they willing to pay us not to move! (He laughs again) And and oh, Mama you would of been proud of the way me and Ruth and Bennie acted. We told him to get out . . . Lord have mercy! We told the man to get out! Oh, we was some proud folks this afternoon, yeah. (He lights a cigarette) We were still full of that old-time stuff . . .

RUTH (Coming toward him slowly) You talking 'bout taking them people's money to keep us from moving in that house?
WALTER I ain't just talking 'bout it, baby I'm telling you that's going to happen!
BENEATHA Oh, God! Where is the bottom! Where is the real honest-to-God bottom so he can't go any farther!
WALTER See that's the old stuff. You and that boy that was here today. You all want everybody to carry a flag and a spear and sing some marching songs, huh? You wanna spend your life looking into thin things and trying to find the right and the wrong part, huh? Yeah. You know what's going to happen to that boy someday he'll find himself sitting in a dungeon, locked in forever and the takers will have the key! Forget it, baby! There ain't no causes there ain't nothing but taking in this world, and he who takes most is smartest and it don't make a damn bit of difference how.

MAMA You making something inside me cry, son. Some awful pain inside me.
WALTER Don't cry, Mama. Understand. That white man is going to walk in that door able to write checks for more money than we ever had. It's important to him and I'm going to help him . . . I'm going to put on the show, Mama.

MAMA Son I come from five generations of people who was slaves and sharecroppers but ain't nobody in my family never let nobody pay 'em no money that was a way of telling us we wasn't fit to walk the earth. We ain't never been that poor. (Raising her eyes and looking at him) We ain't never been that dead inside.
BENEATHA Well we are dead now. All the talk about dreams and sunlight that goes on in this house. It's all dead now.
WALTER What's the matter with you all! I didn't make this world! It was give to me this way! Hell, yes, I want me some yachts someday! Yes, I want to hang some real pearls 'round my wife's neck. Ain't she sup-posed to wear no pearls? Somebody tell me tell me, who decides which women is suppose to wear pearls in this world. I tell you I am a man and I think my wife should wear some pearls in this world!

(This last line hangs a good while and WALTER begins to move about the room. The word "Man" has penetrated his consciousness; he mumbles it to himself repeatedly between strange agitated pauses as he moves about)

144 A RAISIN IN THE SUN

MAMA Baby, how you going to feel on the inside?
WALTER Fine! . . . Going to feel fine . . . a man . . .
MAMA You won't have nothing left then, Walter Lee.

WALTER (Coming to her) I'm going to feel fine, Mama. I'm going to look that son-of-a-bitch in the eyes and say (He falters) and say, "All right, Mr. Lindner (He falters even more) that's your neighborhood out there! You got the right to keep it like you want! You got the right to have it like you want! Just write the check and the house is yours." And and I am going to say (His voice almost breaks) "And you you people just put the money in my hand and you won't have to live next to this bunch of stinking niggers! . . ."

(He straightens up and moves away from his mother, walking around the room) And maybe maybe I'll just get down on my black knees . . . (He does so; RUTH and BENNIE and MAMA watch him in frozen horror) "Captain, Mistuh, Bossman (Groveling and grinning and wringing his hands in profoundly anguished imitation of the slow-witted movie stereotype) A-hee-hee-hee! Oh, yassuh boss! Yassssssuh! Great white (Voice breaking, he forces himself to go on) Father, just gi' ussen de money, fo' God's sake, and we's we's ain't gwine come out deh and dirty up yo* white folks neighborhood . . ." (He breaks down completely) And I'll feel fine! Fine! FINE! (He gets up and goes into the bedroom)

145 BENEATHA

MAMA He's no brother of mine.
BENEATHA I said that that individual in that room is no brother of mine.

MAMA That's what I thought you said. You feeling like you better than he is today? (BENEATHA does not an-swer) Yes? What you tell him a minute ago? That he wasn't a man? Yes? You give him up for me? You done wrote his epitaph too like the rest of the world? Well, who give you the privilege?

BENEATHA Be on my side for once! You saw what he just did, Mama! You saw him down on his knees. Wasn't it you who taught me to despise any man who would do that? Do what he's going to do?

MAMA Yes I taught you that. Me and your daddy. But I thought I taught you something else too ... I thought I taught you to love him.

BENEATHA Love him? There is nothing left to love.

MAMA There is always something left to love. And if you ain't learned that, you ain't learned nothing. (Looking at her) Have you cried for that boy today? I don't mean for that boy today? I don't mean for yourself and for the family 'cause we lost the money. I mean for him: what he been through and what it done to him. Child, when do you think is the time to love somebody the most? When they done good and made things easy for everybody? Well then, you ain't through learning because that ain't the time at all. It's when he's at his lowest and can't believe in his-"cause the world done whipped him so! When you starts measuring somebody, measure him right, child, measure him right. Make sure you done taken into ac-count what hills and valleys he come through before he got to wherever he is.

146 A RAISIN IN THE SUN

TRAVIS Grandmama the moving men are downstairs! The truck just pulled up.

MAMA (Turning and looking at him) Are they, baby? They downstairs?

(LINDNER appears in the doorway. He peers in and knocks lightly, to gain at-tention, and comes in. All turn to look at him)

LINDNER (Hat and briefcase in hand) Uh hello . . . (RUTH crosses mechanically to the bedroom door and opens it and lets it swing open -freely and slowly as the lights come up on WALTER within, still in his coat, sitting at the far corner of the room. He looks up and out through the room to LINDNER)

RUTH He's here.

(A long minute passes and WALTER slowly gets up)

LINDNER (Coming to the table with efficiency, putting his briefcase on the table and starting to unfold papers and unscrew fountain pens) Well, I certainly was glad to hear from you people. (WALTER has begun the trek out of the room, slowly and awkwardly, rather like a small boy, passing the back of his sleeve across his mouth from time to time) Life can really be so much simpler than people let it be most of the time. Well with whom do I negotiate? You, Mrs. Younger, or your son here? (MAMA sits with her hands folded on her lap and her eyes closed as WALTER advances. TRAVIS goes closer to LINDNER and looks at the papers curiously) Just some official papers, sonny.

RUTH Travis, you go downstairs

A RAISIN IN THE SUN 147

MAMA (Opening her eyes and looking into WALTER'S) No. Travis, you stay right here. And you make him understand what you doing, Walter Lee. You teach him good. Like Willy Harris taught you. You show where our five generations done come to. (WALTER looks from her to the boy, who grins at him innocently) Go ahead, son (She folds her hands and closes her eyes) Go ahead.

WALTER (At last crosses to LINDNER, who is reviewing the contract) Well, Mr. Lindner. (BENEATHA turns away) We called you (There is a profound, simple groping quality in his speech) because, well, me and my family (He looks around and shifts from one foot to the other) Well we are very plain people . . .

LINDNER Yes

WALTER I mean I have worked as a chauffeur most of my life and my wife here, she does domestic work in people's kitchens. So does my mother. I mean we are very proud people . . .

LINDNER Yes, Mr. Younger

WALTER (Really like a small boy, looking down at his shoes and then up at the man) And uh well, my father, well, he was a laborer most of his life. . . .

LINDNER (Absolutely confused) Uh, yes yes, I understand. (He turns back to the contract)

WALTER A beat; staring at him) And my father (With sudden intensity) My father almost beat a man to death once because this man called him a bad name or something, you know what I mean?

LINDNER (Looking up, frozen) No, no, Tin afraid I don't

148 A RAISIN IN THE SUN

WALTER (A beat. The tension hangs; then WALTER steps back from it) Yeah. Well what I mean is that we come from people who had a lot of pride. I mean we are very proud people. And that's my sister over there and she's going to be a doctor and we are very proud

LINDNER Well I am sure that is very nice, but

WALTER What I am telling you is that we called you over here to tell you that we are very proud and that this (Signaling to TRAVIS) Travis, come here. (TRAVIS crosses and WALTER draws him before him facing the man) This is my son, and he makes the sixth generation our family in this country. And we have all thought about your offer

LINDNER Well, good . . . good

WALTER And we have decided to move into our house because my father my father he earned it for us brick by brick. (MAMA has her eyes closed and is rocking back and forth as though she were in church, with her head nodding the Amen yes) We don't want to make no trouble for nobody or fight no causes, and we will try to be good neighbors. And that's all we got to say about that. (He looks the man absolutely in the eyes) We don't want your money. (He turns and walks away)

LINDNER (Looking around at all of them) I take it then that you have decided to occupy . . .

BENEATHA That's what the man said.

LINDNER (To MAMA in her reverie) Then I would like to appeal to you, Mrs. Younger. You are older and wiser and understand things better I am sure . . .

MAMA I am afraid you don't understand. My son said we was going to move and there ain't nothing left for me to say, (Briskly) You know how these young folks is nowadays, mister. Can't do a thing with 'em! (As he opens his mouth, she rises) Good-bye.

LINDNER (Folding up his materials) Well if you are that final about it - . . there is nothing left for me to say. (He finishes, almost ignored by the family, who are concentrating on WALTER LEE. At the door LINDNER halts and looks around) I sure hope you people know what you're getting into.

(He shakes his head and exits)

RUTH (Looking around and coming to life) Well, for God's sake if the moving men are here LET'S GET THE HELL OUT OF HERE!

MAMA (Into action) Ain't it the truth! Look at all this here mess. Ruth, put Travis' good jacket on him . . . Walter Lee, fix your tie and tuck your shirt in, you look like somebody's hoodlum! Lord have mercy, where is my plant? (She flies to get it amid the general bustling of the family, who are deliberately trying to ignore the nobility of the past moment) You all start on down . . . Travis child, don't go empty-handed . . . Ruth, where did I put that box with my skillets in it? I want to be in charge of it myself . . . I'm going to make us the biggest dinner we ever ate tonight . . . Beneatha, what's the matter with them stockings? Pull them things up, girl . . . (The family starts to file out as two moving men appear and begin to carry out the heavier pieces of furniture, bumping into the family as they move about)

BENEATHA Mama, Asagai asked me to marry him today and go to Africa

MAMA (In the middle of her getting-ready activity) He did? You ain't old enough to marry nobody (Seeing the moving men lifting one of her chairs precariously)

150 A RAISIN IN THE SUN

Darling, that ain't no bale of cotton, please handle it so we can sit in it again! I had that chair twenty-five years . . .

(The movers sigh with exasperation and go on)

BENEATHA (Girlishly and unreasonably trying to pursue the conversation) To go to Africa, Mama be a doctor in Africa . . .

MAMA (Distracted) Yes, baby

WALTER Africa! What he want you to go to Africa for?

BENEATHA To practice there . . .

WALTER Girl, if you don't get all them silly ideas out your head! You better marry yourself a man with some loot . . .

BENEATHA (Angrily, precisely as in the first scene of the play) What have you got to do with who I marry!

WALTER Plenty. Now I think George Murchison

BENEATHA George Murchison! I wouldn't marry him if he was Adam and I was Eve!

(WALTER and BENEATHA go out yelling at each other vigorously and the anger is loud and real till their voices diminish. RUTH stands at the door and turns to MAMA and smiles knowingly)

MAMA (Fixing her hat at last) Yeah they something all right, my children . . .

RUTH Yeah they're something. Let's go, Lena.

MAMA (Stalling, starting to look around at the house) Yes I'm coming, Ruth

RUTH Yes?

A RAISIN IN THE SUN 151

MAMA (Quietly, woman to woman) He finally come into his manhood today, didn't he? Kind of like a rainbow after the rain . . .

RUTH (Biting her lip lest her own pride explode in front of MAMA) Yes, Lena.

(WALTER'S voice calls for them raucously)

WALTER (Off stage) Y'all come on! These people charges by the hour, you know!

MAMA (Waving RUTH out vaguely) All right, honey go on down. I be down directly.

(RUTH hesitates, then exits. MAMA stands, at last alone in the living room, her plant on the table before her as the lights start to come down. She looks around at all the walls and ceilings and suddenly, despite herself, while the children call below, a great heaving thing rises in her and she puts her fist to her mouth to stifle it, takes a final desperate look, pulls her coat about her, puts her hat and goes out. The lights dim down. The door opens and she comes back in, grabs her plant, and goes out for the last time)
